Assessment of RUFORUM member universities in Kenya Mose, Lawrence, Gao, Lang, Beintema, Nienke M., 2018-11-29
Credible quantitative and qualitative information on existing capacities in agricultural higher education agencies in Africa are important for decisionmakers at national regional and international levels Decisionmakers require data and indicators for strategic planning policy formulation setting priorities and benchmarks measuring progress toward benchmarks and identifying capacity gaps Decisionmakers need a better understanding of the specifics of existing staffing and student capacities in the higher education sector as well as in the wider agricultural innovation systems in Africa south of the Sahara Access to such information will result in better policies addressing capacity issues in agricultural higher education research extension and other areas The existence of such information however remains extremely limited 15 years of the Federation of African Societies of Chemistry (FASC) Neil Coville, James Darkwa, Marian Asantewah Nkansah, Adebola Omowunmi Oyedeji, Mama El Rhazi, 2022-11-16 Soil Fertility Management for Sustainable Food Production in Sub-Saharan Africa Samuel Adjei-Nsiah, Isaac Danso, Andrews Opoku, Kwame Agyei Frimpong, 2022-08-01 Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Sustainable Aquaculture Production for Improved Food Security Kwasi Adu Adu Obirikorang, Mathis Von Ahnen, Kwamena Quagrainie, Jemimah Etornam Kassah, 2024-11-22 Food security has been persistently recognized in global discourse as one of the world's main challenges While some progress has been made towards ensuring access to safe nutritious and sufficient food for all people all year round SDG Target 2.1 on eradicating all forms of malnutrition SDG Target 2.2 over 800 million people are estimated to suffer from chronic hunger With outputs from capture fisheries stagnating over the past few decades aquaculture holds the potential to play crucial roles in achieving food security but its importance for food security and nutrition has often been undervalued and concerns exist regarding its environmental footprint The rapid expansion of aquaculture has consequences relating to environmental sustainability but aquaculture nonetheless holds the potential to significantly contribute to human food security The goal of this collection is to highlight the contribution of aquaculture to food security through the development of sound and sustainable production practices The focus will include all three pillars of sustainability environmental sustainability production technologies that optimize fish production and or minimize significant environmental disruptions or impacts economic sustainability value chain analyses market access for fish products policy analysis and social and community sustainability socially responsible aquaculture practices contributing to food security and well being New Challenges and Future Perspectives in Nutrition and Sustainable Diets in Africa Hettie Carina Schönfeldt, Gloria Essilfie, Yunyun Gong, 2024-05-06 Africa is confronted with the triple burden of malnutrition it is also faced with the triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment In many African countries large proportions of the population rely on agriculture not only for their food but also for their livelihoods A transformed agricultural and food system is thus a necessary condition for addressing this double triple challenge Additionally post harvest and food waste and losses reduce the availability of sufficient quantities of safe edible and preferable foods At least one third of food produced at farm level is lost due to inappropriate storage infrastructure and agro processing technologies in developing countries and one third of food purchased is wasted at household and retail level Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Advances in Phytochemistry, Textile and Renewable Energy Research for Industrial Growth Charles Nzila, Nyamwala Oluoch, Ambrose Kiprop, Rose Ramkat, Isaac Kosgey, 2022-04-06 The International Conference on Phytochemistry Textile Renewable Energy Technologies for Sustainable Development ICPTRE 2020 was hosted by the World bank funded Africa Centre of Excellence in Phytochemicals Textile and Renewable Energy ACEII PTRE based at Moi University in conjunction with Donghua University China and the Sino Africa International Symposium on Textiles and Apparel SAISTA The theme of the conference was Advancing Science Technology and Innovation for Industrial Growth The research relationships between universities and industry have enabled the two entities to flourish and in the past have been credited for accelerated sustainable development and uplifting of millions out poverty ICPTRE 2020 therefore provided a platform for academic researchers drawn from across the world to meet key industry professionals and actively share knowledge while advancing the role of research in industrial development particularly in the developing nations The conference also provided exhibitors with an opportunity to interact with professionals and showcase their business products technologies and equipment During the course of the conference industrial exhibitions research papers and presentations in the fields of phytochemistry textiles renewable energy industry
