2015 Correctional Officer Exam Study Guide:

Jobs in the Corrections System Kathleen A. Klatte, 2021-07-15 The modern corrections system is a complex structure with opportunities in many different professions. Teens with an interest in medicine, social work, psychology, and education to name just a few fields are likely to find a rewarding career in the corrections system. This book explains the many different career paths available and describes some of the educational requirements needed. It speaks plainly about the pros and cons of working in what can be a very volatile environment.

ICEL 2015-10th International Conference on e-Learning Dr Carlton Watson, 2015-06-12 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 10th International Conference on e-Learning ICEL 2015 which is being hosted this year by the College of the Bahamas, Nassau, on the 25-26 June 2015. ICEL is a recognised event on the International research conferences calendar and provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress, and discuss conceptual advances in the area of e-Learning. It provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers to share their experiences of using the varied and expanding range of e-Learning available to them. With an initial submission of 91 abstracts, after the double-blind peer review process, there are 41 academic research papers and 2 PhD papers. Research papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers come from some many different countries including Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Portugal, Republic of Macedonia, Romania, Slovakia, South Africa, Sweden, United Arab Emirates, UK, and the USA. A selection of the best papers, those agreed by a panel of reviewers and the editor, will be published in a conference edition of EJEL, the Electronic Journal of e-Learning (www.ejel.com). These will be chosen for their quality of writing and relevance to the Journal's objective of publishing papers that offer new insights or practical help into the application of e-Learning.

Promoting Wellness and Resiliency in Correctional Officers Hayden P. Smith, 2022-12-26 Correctional officers face considerable stress risk and danger that lead to poor physical and mental health outcomes In fact their life expectancy is 15 years shorter than the national average Public perception and media portrayals of correctional officers tend to reinforce stereotypes of brutish improper and uncontrolled behavior Yet the reality is that correctional officers are operating a default public and mental health system for a sizeable portion of our society a responsibility that exposes them to considerable risk These negative effects have been compounded by an international staffing crisis that has made our jails and prisons far less safe for working officers To address this situation this book features an examination of a combined 11 313 correctional officers and 42 of their family members in the United States Canada and Europe It explores proactive strategies that can reduce rates of posttraumatic stress disorder PTSD in correctional officers which currently surpasses those found in returning military veterans who experienced combat It then delves into the dynamics of correctional officer suicide featuring the perspectives of their families This book highlights innovative approaches that can build on existing strengths including the role of international exchange programs It presents universal themes that impact the safety wellbeing and resiliency of correctional officers along with positive outcomes related to evidence based programs that maximize health in the correctional workplace This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of criminology mental health public policy social work and sociology The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Criminal Justice Studies
