Edgar Hoover Goes to the Movies John Sbardellati,2012-05-01 Between 1942 and 1958 J Edgar Hoover s Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted a sweeping and sustained investigation of the motion picture industry to expose Hollywood s alleged subversion of the American Way through its depiction of social problems class differences and alternative political ideologies FBI informants their names still redacted today reported to Hoover s G men on screenplays and screenings of such films as Frank Capra s It

s a Wonderful Life 1946 noting that this picture deliberately maligned the upper class attempting to show that people who had money were mean and despicable characters The FBI's anxiety over this film was not unique it extended to a wide range of popular and critical successes including The Grapes of Wrath 1940 The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 Crossfire 1947 and On the Waterfront 1954 In J Edgar Hoover Goes to the Movies John Sbardellati provides a new consideration of Hollywood's history and the post World War II Red Scare In addition to governmental intrusion into the creative process he details the efforts of left wing filmmakers to use the medium to bring social problems to light and the campaigns of their colleagues on the political right through such organizations as the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals to prevent dissemination of un-American ideas and beliefs Sbardellati argues that the attack on Hollywood drew its motivation from a sincerely held fear that film content endangered national security by fostering a culture that would be at best apathetic to the Cold War struggle at best or at its worst conducive to communism at home Those who took part in Hollywood's Cold War struggle whether on the left or right shared one common trait a belief that the movies could serve as engines for social change This strongly held assumption explains why the stakes were so high and ultimately why Hollywood became one of the most important ideological battlegrounds of the Cold War Billboard, 1948-03-20 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends William Wyler Gabriel Miller, 2013-06-05 During his forty five year career William Wyler 1902-1981 pushed the boundaries of filmmaking with his gripping storylines and innovative depth of field cinematography With a body of work that includes such memorable classics as Jezebel 1938 Mrs Miniver 1942 Ben Hur 1959 and Funny Girl 1968 Wyler is the most nominated director in the history of the Academy Awards and bears the distinction of having won an Oscar for Best Director on three occasions Both Bette Davis and Lillian Hellman considered him America's finest director and Sir Laurence Olivier said he learned more about film acting from Wyler than from anyone else In William Wyler Gabriel Miller explores the career of one of Hollywood's most unique and influential directors examining the evolution of his cinematic style Wyler's films feature nuanced shots and multifaceted narratives that reflect his preoccupation with realism and story construction The director's later works were deeply influenced by his time in the army air force during World War II and the disconnect between the idealized version of the postwar experience and reality became a central theme of Wyler's masterpiece The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 None of Wyler's contemporaries approached his scope he made successful and seminal films in practically every genre including social drama melodrama and comedy Yet despite overwhelming critical acclaim and popularity Wyler's work has never been extensively studied This long overdue book offers a comprehensive assessment of the director his work and his films influence Arthur Miller's America Enoch Brater, 2005-10-19 International critics explore Arthur Miller's longstanding commitment to forging a uniquely American
