organizations or project teams from freely reporting and discussing critical risks This book seeks to answer these questions starting from a deep analysis of 20 disasters where the concealment of risks played a major part These case studies are drawn from around the world and span a range of industries civil nuclear power coal oil and gas production hydropower energy metals and mining space exploration transport finance retail manufacturing and even the response of governments to wars famines and epidemics Together case studies give an insight into why people hesitate to report risks and even when they do why their superiors often prefer to ignore the news The book reviews existing research on the challenges of voice and silence in organizations This helps to explain more generally why people dread passing on bad news to others and why in the workplace they prefer to keep quiet about unpleasant facts or potential risks when they are talking to superiors and colleagues The discussion section of the book includes important examples of concealment within the Chinese state hierarchy as well as by leading epidemiologists and governments in the West during the novel coronavirus outbreak in Wuhan in 2019 2020 The full picture of the very early stage of the COVID 19 pandemic remains unclear and further research is obviously needed to better understand what motivated some municipal provincial and national officials in China as well as Western counterparts to obfuscate facts in their internal communications about many issues associated with the outbreak Torque, 2008-11 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed

City Limits Keith Hayward, 2016-07-18 City Limits contributes to a growing body of work under the umbrella of cultural criminology It incorporates an impressive array of literature from beyond the boundaries of traditional criminology and makes a challenging and enlightening read Essential English Skills for the Australian Curriculum Year 9 2nd Edition

Anne-Marie Brownhill, Alison Rucco, Deborah Simpson, 2016-06-24 The second edition of the popular Essential English Skills for the Australian Curriculum series has been updated for today's students. Providing support for differentiated learning and featuring flexible ICT tasks that encourage language and literacy development, the series is ideal for both classroom use and homework. The multilevel approach to key language and literacy skills caters to the different learning abilities in the classroom and assists teachers in matching tasks to the skill of their students. Three levels of carefully graded questions: Test yourself, Extend yourself, and Challenge yourself, give every student an achievable starting point and the opportunity to enhance their skills. New text extracts and examples of classic and popular texts provide the very best support for today's students while covering the requirements of the Australian Curriculum and the cross-curricula priorities. Fully integrated tech challenges and online tasks encourage students to explore the impact of technology on their own language and literacy development. Each workbook includes a dedicated introduction to ICT in the classroom. Using Digital Technology for English skills suggests applications that can be used with the workbook. Solutions are available for teachers in downloadable PDF format.

Cobra Deon Meyer, 2014-10-07 A riveting thriller from the acclaimed King of South African crime and the author of Blood Safari. Deon Meyer is one of the unsung masters. Michael Connelly. Deon Meyer is a world-class writer whose page-turning thrillers probe the social and racial complexities of his native country. In Cobra, a famous English mathematician is kidnapped and his two bodyguards are killed at a guesthouse in the beautiful wine country outside Cape Town. It's clearly a professional hit, and the spent shell cases offer a chilling clue: each is engraved with the head of a spitting cobra. Meanwhile, in the city, a skilled thief is using his talents to put his sister through college. But he picks the wrong pocket, grabbing the wallet of a young American woman delivering something very valuable and dangerous to South Africa. The thief not only becomes the target of the deadly hit man known as the Cobra but unwittingly holds the key to stopping a deadly international threat. It's up to Captain Benny Griessel and his elite investigation team to find the pickpocket and track down the Cobra as the novel hurtles toward a brilliant heart-stopping finale on the suburban commuter trains. Mr Meyer, the leading thriller writer in his native country, traffics in crime novel situations familiar the world over: drunken cops, charming robbers, dangerous murderers, sudden violence, and sometimes issues of race.
