Arabizi as a Learning and Teaching Resource Zinnia Shweiry,2025-01-23 This book is the first of its genre to explore the use of Arabizi the Romanized script of the Arabic language that is used online or in chat apps in the Arabic as a Foreign Language AFL classroom It fills a noticeable and glaring gap in teaching a non Romanized language through Romanized representation by observing and studying Arabizi as a resource that is yet to be acknowledged As such the author aptly and concurrently addresses concerns and problems that arise in AFL learning An essential resource for studies in language acquisition the author carves a new niche in the study of phonology and phonetics particularly so in L1 and L2 studies with succinct and up to date examples Relevant to applied linguistics and language educators in Arabic it also draws comparisons between Chinese and Arabic alphabets in analyzing L1 and L2 purposes making it a unique linguistic comparative contribution to the study of languages in classroom settings

Book Steven Berbeco,2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student s gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student s attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student s attitude toward the curriculum
