Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke, Reece Mills, Rod Lane, 2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills Rivista J-Reading n. 2-2017 Gino De Vecchis, 2017-12-29 In questo numero Chew Hung Chang Muhammad Faisal Aman The International Charter on Geographical Education a reflection on published research articles on Assessment Daniela Pasquinelli d Allegra Proposals for the development of competences in geography by applying the IGU International Charter Wiktor Osuch Geography in the reformed educational system in Poland return to the past or a brand new quality Enrico Squarcina Valeria Pecorelli Ocean citizenship The time to adopt a useful concept for environmental teaching and citizenship education is now Margherita Cisani High school commuters Sustainability education on students mobility behaviours and perceptions of their everyday landscape The language of images Edited by Elisa Bignante and Marco Maggioli Elisa Bruttomesso Jordi Vic Intentional Camera Movement A Multisensory and Mobile Photographic Technique to Investigate the Urban Tourism Experience Mapping societies Edited by Edoardo Boria Matteo Proto Irredenta on the map Cesare Battisti and Trentino Alto Adige cartographies Geographical notes and practical considerations Emanuela Gamberoni Challenges of Geography in Education Proposals from the EURO GEO Conference Amsterdam The Netherlands 2 3 March 2017 Social Studies for the Twenty-First Century Jack Zevin, 2023-03-17 Now in its 5th edition this popular text offers practical interesting exciting ways to teach social studies and a multitude of instructional and professional resources for teachers Theory curriculum methods and assessment are woven into a comprehensive model for setting objectives planning lessons units and courses choosing classroom strategies and constructing tests for some of the field s most popular and enduring programs The reflective and integrative framework emphasizes building imagination insight and critical thinking into everyday classrooms encourages problem solving attitudes and behavior and provokes analysis reflection and debate Throughout the text all aspects of curriculum and instruction are viewed from a tripartite perspective that divides social studies instruction into didactic factual reflective analytical and affective judgmental components These three components are seen as supporting one another building the groundwork for taking stands on issues past and present At the center is the author's belief that the heart and soul of social studies instruction perhaps all teaching lies in stimulating the production of ideas looking at knowledge from others viewpoints and formulating for oneself a set of goals values and beliefs that can be explained and justified in open discussion This new edition is heavily revised and condensed to promote ease of use Build Your Own Lesson additions to each chapter encourage improvisation and inquiry based teaching and learning across subjects A Companion Website offers additional activities lessons and resources for pre service and practicing social studies teachers

Nature and Health Eric Brymer, Mike Rogerson, Jo Barton, 2021-07-29 Experiences in nature are now recognised as being fundamental to human health and well being Physical activity in nature has been posited as an important well being facilitator because the presence of nature augments the benefits of physical activity while also enhancing motivation and adherence This volume brings together a mix of cutting edge ideas in research theory and practice from a wide set of disciplines with the purpose of exploring interdisciplinary or trans disciplinary approaches to understanding the relationship between physical activity in nature and health and well being Nature and Health Physical Activity in Nature is structured to facilitate ease of use for the researcher policy maker practitioner or theorist Section 1 covers research on physical activity in nature for a number of important health and well being issues Each chapter in this section considers how policy and practice might be shaped by current research findings and knowledge Section 2 considers contemporary theoretical and conceptual understandings that help explain how physical activity in nature enhances health and well being and also how best to design interventions and research Section 3 provides examples of current approaches This book is an ideal resource for both researchers and advanced students interested in designing future proofed research for policy makers interested in improving community well being and for practitioners interested in best practice applications

Leaders of Their Own Learning Ron Berger, Leah Rugen, Libby Woodfin, EL Education, 2014-01-07 From EL Education comes a proven approach to student assessment Leaders of Their Own Learning offers a new way of thinking about assessment based on the celebrated work of EL Education schools across the country Student Engaged Assessment is not a single practice but an approach to teaching and learning that equips and compels students to understand goals for their learning and growth track their progress toward those goals and take responsibility for reaching them This requires a set of interrelated strategies and structures and a whole school culture in which students are given the respect and responsibility to be meaningfully engaged in their own learning Includes everything teachers and school leaders need to implement a successful Student Engaged Assessment system in their schools Outlines the practices that will engage students in making academic progress improve achievement and involve families and communities in the life of the school Describes each of the book's eight key practices gives advice on how to begin and explains what teachers and school leaders need to put into practice in their own classrooms Ron Berger is Chief Program Officer for EL Education and a former public school teacher Leaders of Their Own Learning shows educators how to ignite the capacity of students to take responsibility for their own learning meet Common Core and state standards and reach higher levels of achievement Video and other supplementary materials are not included as part of the e book file but are available for download after purchase Staying the Course as a CIO Jonathan Mitchell, 2015-01-12 STAYING THE COURSE AS A CIO HOW TO OVERCOME THE TRIALS AND CHALLENGES OF IT LEADERSHIP The shelf life of a Chief Information Officer can be shockingly short Few survive in post for more than a few years More often each falls prey to insurmountable problems and their careers come to a sharp and ignominious end In this book a global CIO with over thirty years of experience in major corporations examines the main reasons why this happens Readers will understand which types of issue can cause problems for an IT Leader and more importantly they will learn strategies of how these problems can be minimized or even avoided IT is often seen a technical backwater but it is a discipline which has the capability to add massive value to an organisation whether it is in the private or the public sector provided of course it has the right leadership doing the right things Aspiring IT Leaders will need to deal with a common set of recurring trials and challenges These include Overcoming the challenge of managing diverse and conflicting stakeholders How to deal with large and complex projects Making sense of software and how to handle the rapidly changing technology landscape Knowing when to outsource and how to get the best out of an outsourcing partner Harnessing the intellectual power of consultants to help you meet your goals And last but not least how to develop a set of strategies that are aligned with your corporate goals and then make sure your resources are properly targetted so that the IT function generates maximum positive impact for the enterprise For IT professionals looking to fully integrate their function into the enterprise Staying the Course as a CIO is a valuable source of practical advice all based on real experience Ebook: Life-Span Development Santrock, 2016-09-16 Ebook Life Span Development

Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1990 Learning from Difference: Comparative Accounts of Multicultural Education Joseph Lo Bianco, Aydin Bal, 2016-03-30 This book analyses the experiences of multicultural education in nine very different international settings uncovering insights from a vast variety of educational contexts Taking a multi critical approach in reporting and discussing problems faced by increasingly multicultural and multilingual societies the nine case studies reflect radically different assumptions about what counts as difference and what should be the appropriate ways for education systems to respond to differences While each country's approach seems unique analysis of the divergent treatments of internal population diversity elicits a genuinely global instance of the increasingly shared phenomenon of cultural pluralism Discussing various successes and failures of policy enactment theory pedagogy and management of diversity the book isolates both the differences and similarities in the unique geopolitical and socio historical contexts of the countries investigated A key value of the book is that it greatly expands the range of settings experiences epistemologies ontologies and practical experiences that are typically encountered in mainstream discussion of what counts as multicultural education In effect all societies are in some way dealing with difference this volume helps widen the scope of reflection and thus facilitates increased global learning from difference

Reassessing the Social Studies Curriculum

Wayne Journell,2016-05-03 The terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 dramatically changed many aspects of American society and the ramifications of that horrific event are still impacting the domestic and foreign policies of the United States Yet fifteen years after 9 11 an event that was predicted to change the scope of public education in the United States we find that the social studies curriculum remains virtually the same as before the attacks For a discipline charged with developing informed citizens prepared to enter a global economy such curricular stagnation makes little sense This book which contains chapters from many leading scholars within the field of social studies education both assesses the ways in which the social studies curriculum has failed to live up to the promises of progressive citizenship education made in the wake of the attacks and offers practical advice for teachers who wish to encourage a critical understanding of the post 9 11 global society in which their students live

Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia

Yong-Shik Lee,2023-09-05 Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia examines the causes of lasting and complex tensions in the region from underlying political historical military and economic perspectives discusses their historical development and political economic implications for the world and explores possible solutions to build lasting peace The book is unique in that it approaches the topic from the historical perspective of each constituent country in the region Major global powers such as the United States and Russia have also closely engaged in the political and economic affairs of this region through a network of alliances diplomacy trade and investment The book also discusses the influence of these external powers over the crisis their political and economic objectives in the region their strategies and the dynamics that their engagement has created Both South Korea and North Korea have sought reunification of the Korean peninsula which will have a substantial impact on the region The book examines its justification feasibility and effects for the region The book discusses the role of Mongolia in the context of the power dynamics in Northeast Asia A relatively small country in terms of its population Mongolia has rarely been examined in this context Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia makes a fresh assessment of its potential role

Mental Maps

Janne Holmén,Norbert Götz,2021-11-28 The concept of mental maps is used in several disciplines including geography psychology history linguistics economics anthropology political science and computer game design However until now there has been little communication between these disciplines and methodological schools involved in mental mapping Mental Maps Geographical and Historical Perspectives addresses this situation by bringing together scholars from some of the related fields Ute Schneider examines the development of German geographer Heinrich Schiffrers mental maps using his books on Africa from the 1930s to the 1970s Efrat Ben Ze'ev and Chloé Yvroux investigate conceptions of Israel and Palestine particularly the West Bank held by French and Israeli students By superimposing large numbers of sketch maps Clarisse Didelon Loiseau Sophie de Ruffray and Nicolas Lambert identify soft and hard macro regions on the mental maps of geography students across the world Janne Holm n investigates whether the Baltic and the Mediterranean Seas are seen as links or divisions between the countries that line their shores according to the mental maps of high school seniors Similarly Dario Musolino maps regional preferences of Italian entrepreneurs Finally Lars Erik Edlund offers an essayistic account of mental mapping based on memories of maps in his own family This edited volume book uses printed maps survey data and hand drawn maps as sources contributing to the study of human perception of space from the perspectives of different disciplines The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Geography
