Voice, Agency and Resistance Mark Nartey, 2023-03-31 Drawing on data from Africa Latin America North America and the Arab Levant this book demonstrates how members of marginalized disempowered groups sculpt a positive image for themselves engage in solidarity formation for group empowerment and re construct their experiences in a manner that gives them voice agency and a positive identity It argues for a more interventionist stance in ideologically oriented discourse analysis and demonstrates why critical discourse analysts must not only expose and resist the inequities or injustices in society but more crucially also adopt an activist scholar posture in order to push for positive social change The book brings into focus a how discourse can be used to center the voice and agency of minority groups b how feminists re make gender relations in our world c how non dominant groups actively resist injustices and discriminatory discourses directed against them d how discourse can be used to advance the goals of repressed groups in order to instigate progressive social change and e access to forms of discourse that can be empowering for marginalized groups participation in social domains It will be of interest to postgraduate students and academics in critical discourse studies communication and media studies as well as non academics such as activists journalists and sociopolitical commentators This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Critical Discourse Studies
