The Holocaust Museum and Human Rights Jennifer Barrett, Avril Alba, Dirk Moses, 2025-01-28 Interrogates the global and often controversial phenomenon of Holocaust and human rights museums Spanning six continents Europe Australia Africa Asia North America and South America this edited collection offers a comparative transnational study of Holocaust and human rights museums that foregrounds the overlapping and often contested work these institutions do in narrating and memorializing histories of genocide and human rights abuses for a public audience Museums that link the Holocaust with social justice human rights and genocide prevention have been founded in many countries for example the Kazerne Dossin Memorial Museum in Belgium the Anne Frank House in the Netherlands and the Johannesburg Holocaust and Genocide Centre in South Africa making Holocaust and human rights museums a global phenomenon It is not uncommon for these institutions to court controversy by linking the Holocaust to human rights issues in their locales and abroad Some begin from a Holocaust core and extrapolate from this history to address broader concerns while others integrate the Holocaust as a or at times the case study par excellence of human rights abuses Other institutions that may not explicitly focus on the Holocaust continue to engage these representational practices to highlight other instances of genocide and human rights abuses The case studies in this book illuminate the convergences between Holocaust and human rights museums in their demands for social justice and reparation educational and activist purpose design principles and curatorial choices But it also shows how these museums can also be sites of contestation around how stories of suffering courage and survival are told whose stories are prioritized and who is consulted Although Holocaust museums were once the most influential form of representation of human rights issues in the international museum and heritage fields they are now in dialogue visually spatially methodologically with museums and memorial sites concerned with human rights more broadly Interrogating debates in both museology and Holocaust memory studies this volume reveals how institutions dedicated to these concerns have become active and influential contributors to local national and transnational dialogues about human rights Contributors Avril Alba Brook Andrew Jennifer Barrett Jennifer Carter Danielle Celermajer Steven Cooke Donna Lee Frieze Shirli Gilbert Sulamith Graefenstein Christoph Hanzig Vannessa Hearman Rosanne Kennedy Marcia Langton Edwina Light Wendy Lipworth A Dirk Moses Tali Nates Jessica Neath Michael Robertson Amy Sodaro Garry Walter The Diary Batsheva Ben-Amos, Dan Ben-Amos, 2020-03-10 The diary as a genre is found in all literate societies and these autobiographical accounts are written by persons of all ranks and positions The Diary offers an exploration of the form in its social historical and cultural literary contexts with its own distinctive features poetics and rhetoric The contributors to this volume examine theories and interpretations relating to writing and studying diaries the formation of diary canons in the United Kingdom France United States and Brazil and the ways in which handwritten diaries are transformed through processes of publication and digitization The authors also explore different diary formats including the travel diary the private diary conflict diaries written during periods of crisis and the diaries of the digital era such as blogs The Diary offers a comprehensive overview of the genre synthesizing decades of interdisciplinary study to enrich our understanding of research about and engagement with the diary as literary form and historical documentation Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

The Phenomenon of Anne Frank David Barnouw, 2018-11-01 Everything you want to know about the Anne Frank phenomenon about the perception and the effect of the text whose writer became an icon is said within these pages Wolfgang Benz author of A Concise History of the Third Reich While Anne Frank was in hiding during the German Occupation of the Netherlands she wrote what has become the world's most famous diary But how could an unknown Jewish girl from Amsterdam be transformed into an international icon Renowned Dutch scholar David Barnouw investigates the facts and controversies that surround the global phenomenon of Anne Frank Barnouw highlights the ways in which Frank's life and ultimate fate have been represented interpreted and exploited He follows the evolution of her diary into a book with translations into nearly 60 languages and editions that added previously unknown material an American play and a movie As he asks Who owns Anne Frank Barnouw follows her emergence as a global phenomenon and what this means for her historical persona as well as for her legacy as a symbol of the Holocaust Reasonable elegant sometimes provocative essential Ian Buruma author of Year Zero A History of 1945

Accidents of Influence Norma Rosen, 2012-02-01 For Norma Rosen the Holocaust is the central event of the twentieth century In this book she examines the relationship of post Holocaust writers to their work in terms of subject language imagery and facing up to the task of writing in a post Holocaust era She considers the work of such major influences on our time as T S Eliot Simone Weil Anne Frank E L Doctorow Norman Mailer Eugenio Montale Philip Roth and Saul Bellow Accidents of Influence combines critical analysis with personal response and autobiographical moments It includes quotidian encounters in friendship sex society art politics response to violence and religious observance which struggle for moral ground in this post Holocaust era

Wikipedia, The Last Secret of the Secret Annex Joop van Wijk-Voskuil, Jeroen De Bruyn, 2023-06-08 Devastating and compelling DAILY MAIL Poignant TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

The extraordinary story of Bep Voskuil Anne Frank's closest friend during the 761 days she spent in the Secret Annex Bep Voskuil was just twenty three when the Franks went into hiding and she risked her life to protect them sourcing food and medicine under the noses of German soldiers and Dutch spies But while Bep's friendship with Anne blossomed Bep's sister Nelly whose name was scrubbed from Anne's published diary was collaborating with the Nazis Long after the war haunted by the loss of Anne Bep is unable to put to rest the horrifying suspicion that she had been betrayed by her own flesh and blood Written by Bep's son The Last Secret of the Secret Annex is a captivating story of heroism betrayal and the devastating destructive power of a secret _____ Fascinating Not only conveys the quiet heroism of what his mother contributed to Anne Frank's story but a sad playing out of a family's dysfunction of the pain of survival of the ripples of trauma flowing into succeeding generations DAILY TELEGRAPH

Victimhood Nationalism Jie-Hyun Lim, 2025-04-01 Nationalism today depends on the perception of victimhood The historical memory of past suffering endows nationalist movements with political legitimacy and a sense of moral superiority Koreans recall Japanese colonial atrocities while Japan commemorates the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Israel sanctifies the Holocaust and Poland trumpets the Nazi and Soviet occupations Even Germany and Russia perpetrators of historical crimes today cast themselves as victims by pointing to national suffering In this theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich book Jie Hyun Lim offers a new way to understand nationalism and its political instrumentalization of suffering developing the concept of victimhood nationalism and exploring it in a range of global settings He examines relations among Poland Germany Israel Korea and Japan focusing on how memories of colonialism the Holocaust and Stalinist terror have converged and intertwined in transnational spaces With an emphasis on memory formation Lim scrutinizes how perpetrators in Germany and Japan transformed themselves into victims as well as how nationalists in Poland Korea and Israel portray themselves as hereditary victims in order to rebut external criticism He considers the construction of nations as victims and perpetrators tracing the interaction of history and memory Ultimately the book contends challenging victimhood nationalism is necessary to overcome the endless competition over national suffering and instead promote reconciliation mutual understanding and transnational solidarity Tourism, Memorials and Landscapes of Violence Rudi Hartmann, 2024-09-30 The book focuses on tourism memorial sites of the Holocaust and the Pacific War and the management practices for the visitors that they attract It provides an account of landscapes of violence as millions of people in Central and Eastern Europe China Japan and the United States were affected by wars conflicts and crises A special feature of the book is to reconstruct the changing management practices and the significance these heritage sites have attained for different visitor groups and the local populations and to critically assess the current situation 80 years after the events The book discusses the new directions of dark tourism thanatourism and dissonance in heritage tourism in contemporary tourism research Several case studies and in depth analysis of memorial sites allow the reader to understand the consequences of past or ongoing policy changes This book will appeal to students and researchers in the fields of tourism
