 - (a) It is amortized.
 - (b) It is impairment tested individually.
 - (c) It is written off against profits or loss.
 - ☒ (d) Goodwill is not recognized separately within the carrying amount of the investment.
2. What should happen when the financial statements of an associate are not prepared to the same date as the investor's accounts?
 - (a) The associate should prepare financial statements for the use of the investor at the same date as those of the investor.
 - (b) The financial statements of the associate prepared up to a different accounting date will be used as normal.
 - ☒ (c) Any major transactions between the date of the financial statements of the investor and that of the associate should be accounted for.
 - (d) As long as the gap is not greater than three months, there is no problem.
3. If the investor ceases to have significant influence over an associate, how should the investment be treated?
 - (a) It should still be treated using equity accounting.
 - ☒ (b) It should be treated in accordance with IAS 39.
 - (c) The investment should be shown at the date at which the investor ceases to have significant influence.
 - (d) The investment should be treated at cost.
4. If there is any excess of the investor's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets and contingent liabilities over the cost of the investment, that is, negative goodwill, how should that excess be treated?
 - (a) It should be included in the carrying amount of the investment.
 - ☒ (b) It should be written off against retained earnings.
 - (c) It should be included as income in the determination of the investor's share of the associate's profits or loss for the period.
