Ecclesial Futures: Volume 1, Issue 2 Nigel Rooms, Steve Taylor, 2020-12-24. Ecclesial Futures publishes original research and theological reflection on the development and transformation of local Christian communities and the systems that support them as they join in the mission of God in the world. We understand local Christian communities broadly to include traditional parish churches and independent local churches, religious communities and congregations, new church plants, so-called fresh expressions of church, emergent churches, and new monastic communities. We are an international and ecumenical journal with an interdisciplinary understanding of our approach to theological research and reflection, the core disciplines being theology, missiology, and ecclesiology. Other social science and theological disciplines may be helpful in supporting the holistic nature of any research, e.g., anthropology and ethnography, sociology, statistical research, biblical studies, leadership studies, and adult learning. The journal fills an important reflective space between the academy and on the ground practice within the field of mission studies ecclesiology and the so called missional church This opportunity for engagement has emerged in the last twenty or so years from a turn to the local and the local church and in the western world at least from the demise of Christendom and a rapidly changing world which also affects the church globally The audience for the journal is truly global wherever the local church and the systems that support them exists We expect to generate interest from readers in church judicatory bodies theological seminaries university theology departments and in local churches from all God s people and the leaders amongst them
