Millennials, Generation Z and the Future of Tourism Fabio Corbisiero, Salvatore Monaco, Elisabetta Ruspini, 2022-06-23

This book examines the lifestyles expectations and plans of Millennials and Generation Z and how they are redefining tourism. It demonstrates that if the tourism industry is to enjoy future growth it must understand and meet the particular needs of these two generations. The volume explores the present and future challenges faced by the tourism industry as a result of the generational turnover and seeks to answer the following questions: What contribution can the new generations make to the future of tourism? How are technological advancements and social networks shaping future travel trends? Can a generational perspective be useful to help the tourism industry recover from the COVID 19 crisis? The book will be of interest to researchers and students of sociology and tourism studies as well as tourism professionals. CDS & CDS OTA 16 Years

Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Dallen Timothy, 2018-12-07 The Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa examines the importance of tourism as a historical economic social environmental religious and political force in the Middle East and North Africa MENA. It highlights the ecological and resource challenges related to water desert environments climate change and oil It provides an in depth analysis of the geopolitical conditions that have long determined the patterns of tourism demand and supply throughout the region and how these play out in the everyday lives of residents and destinations as they attempt to grow tourism or ignore it entirely While cultural heritage remains the primary tourism asset for the region as a whole many new types of tourisms are emerging especially in the Arabian Gulf region where hyper development is closely associated with the increasingly prominent role of luxury real estate and shopping retail medical tourism cruises and transit tourism The growing phenomenon of an expatriate workforce and how its segregation from the citizenry creates a dual socio economic system in several countries is unmatched by other regions of the world Many indigenous people of MENA keep themselves apart from other dominant groups in the region although these social boundaries are becoming increasingly blurred as tourism being one socio economic force for change has inspired many nomadic peoples to settle into towns and villages and rely more on tourists for their livelihoods All of these issues and more shape the foundations of this book This Handbook is the first of its kind to examine tourism from a broad regional and inclusive perspective surveying a broad range of social cultural heritage ecological and political matters in a single volume With a wide range of contributors many of whom are natives of the Middle East and North Africa this Handbook is a vital resource for students and scholars interested in Tourism Middle East Studies and Geography

African Foreign Policies Paul-Henri Bischoff, 2020-03-26 This book explores at a time when several powers have become serious players on the continent aspects of African agency past and present by African writers on foreign policy representative of geography language and state size In the past African foreign policy has largely been considered within the context of reactions to the international or global external factor This groundbreaking book however looks at how foreign policy has been crafted and used in response not just to external but also mainly domestic imperatives or theoretical signifiers As such it narrates individual and changing foreign policy orientations over time and as far back as independence with mainly African based scholars who present their own constructs of what is a useful theoretical narrative regarding foreign policy on the continent how theory is adapted to local circumstance or substituted for continentally based ontologies The book therefore contends that the African experience carries valuable import for expanding general understandings of foreign policy in general This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of Foreign Policy Analysis Foreign Policy Studies African International Relations Politics Studies Diplomacy and more broadly to International Relations
