Intertextuality and Forging Identity in Alison Bechdel's Fun Home: a Family Tragicomic, 2009 Alison Bechdel's Use of Canonical Modernist Literature in 'Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic': The Case of Fitzgerald, Joyce and Woolf Marijke De Wilde, 2015 Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American

Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg's multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark Dramatic Intertextuality in Alison Bechdel's "Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic": Exploring Gender and Sexuality Through Shakespeare and Wilde Elien Khouri, 2017 This thesis will examine how Alison Bechdel's 2006 graphic memoir Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic uses references to William Shakespeare Oscar Wilde and their works to explore Bechdel's and her father's sexual identities and gender identities First I will argue that Bechdel's use of dramatic intertextuality is often ignored in favour of her use of modernist canonical fiction Then I will proceed to explain why dramatic intertextuality is important for the graphic narrative and for Fun Home in particular Afterwards I will specifically focus on the dramatic intertextual references to Shakespeare and Wilde I will argue that Bechdel explores her own gender identity by indirectly referencing Shakespeare's use of theatrical transvestitism Then I will argue that she explores her father's sexuality by comparing him to Oscar Wilde and the homosexual archetypes he used in his plays I will conclude my thesis with a discussion on how Bechdel employs indirect and direct dramatic intertextual references and what these references convey about her gender identity and her father's sexual identity Fifty Key Stage Musicals Robert W. Schneider, Shannon Agnew, 2022-03-30 This volume in the Routledge Key Guides series provides a round up of the fifty musicals whose creations were seminal in altering the landscape of musical theater discourse in the English speaking world Each entry summarises a show including a full synopsis discussion of the creator's process show's critical reception and its impact on the landscape of musical theater This is the ideal primer for students of musical theater its performance history and place in the modern theatrical world as well as fans and lovers of musicals Are You My Mother? Alison Bechdel, 2012 A graphic novel follow up to Fun Home depicts the author's mother as a voracious reader music lover and passionate amateur actress who quietly suffers as the wife of a closeted gay artist and withdraws from her young daughter The Comics of Alison Bechdel Janine Uteell, 2019-12-30 Contributions by Michelle Ann Abate Leah Anderst Alissa S Bourbonnais

Tyler Bradway Natalja Chestopalova Margaret Galvan Judith Kegan Gardiner Katie Hogan Jonathan M Hollister Yetta Howard Katherine Kelp Stebbins Don L Latham Vanessa Lauber Katherine Parker Hay Anne N Thalheimer Janine Utell and Susan R Van Dyne Alison Bechdel is both a driver and beneficiary of the welcoming of comics into the mainstream Indeed the seemingly simple binary of outside inside seems perpetually troubled throughout the career of this important comics artist known for Fun Home Are You My Mother and Dykes to Watch Out For This volume extends the body of scholarship on her work from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives In a definitive collection of original essays scholars cover the span of Bechdel s career placing her groundbreaking early work within the context of her more well known recent projects The contributors provide new insights on major themes in Bechdel s work such as gender performativity masculinity lesbian politics and representation trauma life writing and queer theory Situating Bechdel among other comics artists this book charts possible influences on her work probes the experimental traits of her comics in their representations of kinship and trauma combs archival materials to gain insight into Bechdel s creative process and analyzes her work in community building and space making through the comics form Ultimately the volume shows that Bechdel s work consists of performing a series of selves serializing the self as it were each constructed and refracted across and within her chosen artistic modes and genres
