Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana Yonah Matemba,Richardson Addai-Mununkum,2021-03-15 Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana contributes to the literature on opportunities and complexities of inclusive approaches to Religious Education RE It analyses how RE in Malawi and Ghana engages with religious pluralisation and provides a compelling case for the need to re evaluate current approaches in the conceptualisation curriculum design and delivery of RE in schools in Malawi and Ghana The book explains how a pervasive tradition of selection involving exclusion and inclusion of religion in RE leads to misrepresentation and in turn to misclusion of non normative religions where religion is included but marginalized and misrepresented The book contributes to wider discourse of RE on opportunities as well as complexities of post confessional approaches including the need for RE to avoid perpetuating the continued legitimisation of selected religions and in the process the delegitimization of the religious other as a consequence of misrepresentation and misclusion Inspired by Braten s methodology for comparative studies in RE the book draws on two qualitative studies from Malawi and Ghana to highlight the pervasive problems of religious misclusion in RE This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of RE African education educational policy international education and comparative education

Halvorsen: Sharing Knowledge, Transforming Societi ,2023-01-10 In June 2016 the Norwegian Programme for Capacity Development in Higher Education and Research for Development Norhed hosted a conference on the theme of knowledge for development in an attempt to shift the focus of the programme towards its academic content This book follows up on that event The conference highlighted the usefulness of presenting the value of Norhed's different projects to the world showing how they improve knowledge and expand access to it through co-operation. A wish for more meta-knowledge was also expressed and this gives rise to the following questions: Is this way of co-operating contributing to the growth of independent post-colonial knowledge production in the South based on analyses of local data and experiences in ways that are relevant to our shared future? Does the growth of academic independence as well as greater equality and the ability to develop theories different to those imposed by the better-off parts of the world give rise to deeper understandings and better explanations? Does it at least spread the ability to translate existing methodologies in ways that add meaning to observations of local context and data and thus enhance the relevance and influence of the academic profession locally and internationally? This book in its varied contributions does not provide definite answers to these questions but it does show that Norhed is a step in the right direction. Norhed is an attempt to fund collaboration within and between higher education institutions. We know that both the uniqueness of this programme and ideas of how to better utilise the learning and experience emerging from it call for more elaboration and broader dissemination before we can offer further guidance on how to do things better. This book is a first attempt. Annual Report for the Year ... Malawi. Human Rights Commission, 2016
