

Electrostatic Potentials – Dissolved Chloride

Background Information

Consider the following system after removing the hydrogen atoms a methyl ammonium cation, a chloride anion, water, and methanol from Example 1.

Question 1: Label the positions on the left's water with the hydrogen corresponding to the selected positions on the right's water. Moreover, the right's hydrogen is positive which has not to worry very much the water and hydrogen about themselves having non-electrostatic.

Question 2: Label the positions on the chlorine with the hydrogen corresponding to the selected positions on the right's water molecule. Note that the water molecule is not just a water molecule, but it is a water molecule that has been oriented in such a way that its oxygen atom is towards the cation and its hydrogen atoms are towards the anion. This is because the water molecule is a polar molecule, and its dipole moment is oriented in such a way that it is attracted to the cation and repelled by the anion.

A Christian Student'S Guide to Truth in Science Stanley J. O'Briant,2015-03-13 This book exposes the attempt to teach atheistic evolution to students often ridiculing their faith in God The classrooms in our schools have become the battlegrounds for the minds of our children Since the introduction of evolution by Charles Darwin there has been a growing list of atheist professors who vigorously fight any religion The classrooms of America should not be the battlegrounds of any religion but evolution is a religion It has no place in the classroom since it does not offer any information that improves the teaching of any science class except evolution itself There is no proof of evolution only assertions innuendos credulity belief without proof and suppositions Fully one third of all geology textbooks deal with evolution which is founded only opinion and undocumented assertions Therefore it should be removed from all textbooks Dr David Menton who taught medicine at the Washington School of Medicine in St Louis Missouri for twenty five years stated that he never once needed to reference evolution in any medical class A coalition of organizations such as the National Academy of Sciences whose members are 93% atheist or agnostic and the National Center for Science and Education control most of the government grants intended for schools use fully support the atheism of evolution and they attack any criticism of evolution

Fundamental Questions in Astrophysics: Guidelines for Future UV Observatories Ana I. Gómez de Castro,Willem Wamsteker,2007-01-30 Modern astrophysics is a mature science that has evolved from its early phase of discovery and classification to a physics oriented discipline focused on finding answers to fundamental problems ranging from cosmology to the origin and diversity of life sustainable systems in the Universe For this very reason progress of modern astrophysics requires access to the electromagnetic spectrum in the broadest energy range The Ultraviolet is a fundamental energy domain since it is one of the most powerful tools to study plasmas at temperatures in the 3 000 300 000 K range as well as electronic transitions of the most abundant molecules in the Universe Moreover the UV radiation field is a powerful astrochemical and photoionizing agent This book describes the fundamental problems in modern astrophysics that cannot progress without easy and wide spread access to modern UV instrumentation
