Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa. Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels. However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed. Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology. This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities. The book is divided into four parts. Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa. Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa. Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa. Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa. Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union A History of Uyghur Buddhism Johan Elverskog, 2024-06-18 Today most Uyghurs are Muslims For centuries however Uyghurs were Buddhists By around 1000 CE they like many of their neighbors had decisively turned toward the Dharma and a golden age of Uyghur Buddhism flourished under the Mongol empire Dwelling along the Silk Road in what is now northwestern China they stood at the center of Buddhist Eurasia linking far flung regions and traditions But as Muslim power grew Uyghur Buddhists converted to Islam rewriting their past and erasing their Buddhist history This book presents the first comprehensive history of Buddhism among the Uyghurs from the ninth to the seventeenth century Johan Elverskog traces how the Uyghurs forged their distinctive tradition considering a variety of social political cultural and religious contexts He argues that the religious history of the Uyghurs challenges conventional narratives of the meeting of Buddhism and Islam showing that conversion took place gradually and was driven by factors such as geopolitics climate change and technological innovation Elverskog also provides a nuanced understanding of lived Buddhism focusing on ritual practices and materiality as well as the religion's entanglements with economics politics and violence A groundbreaking history of Uyghur Buddhism this book makes a compelling case for the importance of the Uyghurs in shaping the course of both Buddhist and Asian history The American War in Afghanistan Carter Malkasian, 2021 A history of the war in Afghanistan between 2001 and 2020 The work follows a narrative format to go through the 2001 US invasion the state building of 2002 2005 the Taliban offensive of 2006 the US surge of 2009 2011 the subsequent drawdown and the peace talks of 2019 2020
