Symphonies Nos. 3 & 4 Johannes Brahms,1999-08-26 Expertly arranged full orchestra miniature score symphonies Ludwig Minkus; Fiammetta/Néméa Robert Ignatius Letellier,2010-03-08 Aloysius Ludwig Minkus 1826 1917 famous for his ballets Don Quixote 1869 and La Bayadere 1877 was born in Bohemia and grew up in the dance capital Vienna He hoped to establish a reputation as a violinist and composer and by 1853 had emigrated to St Petersburg where he became the conductor and solo violinist of the private orchestra of Prince Nikolai Yusupov In 1861 he was appointed violin soloist and a year later conductor of the Moscow Bolshoi Orchestra He began a happy collaboration with the great French choreographer Arthur Saint Leon 1821 1870 who was a real friend and inspiration to Minkus and more than anyone else helped to launch his career as a theatrical composer producing five works in association with him in St Petersburg and Paris Minkus's first ballet the three act Plamya lyubvi ili Salamandra The Flame of Love or the Salamander also called Fiammetta was given its premiere on 13 February 1864 at the Bolshoi Kamenny Theater in St Petersburg with Marfa Muravyeva in the leading role The scenario and the choreography were by Saint Leon the most important dance master of the day in both Paris and Russia Saint Leon's influence secured this work production in the French capital and it was perhaps for this occasion that Minkus accompanied Saint Leon to Paris to mount the work at the Académie Royale de Musique Reduced to two acts and rechristened Néméa ou l'Amour vengé with a scenario adapted by Henri Meilhac Ludovic Halévy the ballet was performed at the Paris Opéra on 11 July 1864 with considerable success again with Marfa Muravyeva and with Eugénie Fiocre as Cupid It remained in the repertoire for seven years attaining 53 performances by 1871 Thophile Gautier remarked on the atmospheric quality of Minkus's music its haunting dreamy quality Roqueplan singled out Saint Leon's choreography for its

imagination and originality his ability to handle masses Some of the Airs de Ballet were almost immediately published by Henri Hegel 1865 and are reproduced here By now Minkus was becoming known internationally So when five years later the Paris Opéra ordered a new grand ballet from Saint-Léon to a libretto by Charles Nutter Saint-Léon involved Minkus in the project securing for him a hand in the composition of the first and fourth scenes of this new work La Source The other two scenes were entrusted to the young Léo Delibes thirty at the time who had drawn favourable attention to himself in the preparation of the ballet music for the premiere of Meyerbeer's posthumous L'Africaine in 1865 The first performance of La Source on 12 November 1866 was great success for Delibes whose bold and colourful composition was praised at the expense of Minkus's subtler contribution Saint-Léon immediately began planning another work with Nutter and Delibes and one which would crown the young French composer's success with triumph Coppélia Saint-Léon nevertheless continued to work with Minkus despite his busy engagements in Paris The choreographer's greatest ballet for Russia was his work with Cesare Pugni Koniok Gorbunok The Little Humpbacked Horse 1864 based on a Russian fairytale He now tapped into the same folk material in a new work with Minkus Zolotaya rybka The Golden Fish based on Alexander Pushkin's Legend of the fisher and the little fish On 20 November 1866 for the celebration of the Tsarevitch's wedding Saint-Léon oversaw the production of a one act version of this new ballet Le Poisson dor at the Bolshoi Kamenny Theater in St Petersburg The work was then developed as a three act ballet for the same theater a year later 8 October 1867 Minkus's music was very well received As with La Source it was carefully adapted in form and mood to the scenario remarkable for its panache and beautiful writing for solo instruments violin flute cello cornet and for reflecting the nature of the fairytale scenario in the appropriation of national folk styles Polish Kazak Cossack The score was considered worthy of full publication in piano reduction by the St Petersburg house of Stollowsky c 1870 and is reproduced here The last collaboration between Minkus and Saint-Léon followed two years after that a partial arrangement of La Source given in St Petersburg as Liliya Le Lys in 1869
