Arabic English Calandar 2014:

Handbook of Arab American Psychology Mona M. Amer, Germaine H. Awad, 2015-11-19 The Handbook of Arab American Psychology is the first major publication to comprehensively discuss the Arab American ethnic group from a lens that is primarily psychological. This edited book contains a comprehensive review of the cutting edge research related to Arab Americans and offers a critical analysis regarding the methodologies and applications of the scholarly literature. It is a landmark text for both multicultural psychology as well as for Arab American scholarship. Considering the post 9/11 socio-political context in which Arab Americans are under ongoing scrutiny and attention as well as numerous misunderstandings and biases against this group, this text is timely and essential. Chapters in the Handbook of Arab American Psychology highlight the most substantial areas of psychological research with this population relevant to diverse sub-disciplines including cultural, social, developmental, counseling, clinical, health, and community psychologies. Chapters also include content that intersect with related fields such as sociology, American studies, cultural, ethnic studies, social work, and public health. The chapters are written by distinguished scholars who merge their expertise with a review of the empirical data in order to provide the most updated presentation of scholarship about this population. The Handbook of Arab American Psychology offers a noteworthy contribution to the field of multicultural psychology and joins references on other racial/ethnic minority groups including Handbook of African American Psychology, Handbook of Asian American Psychology, Handbook of U.S. Latino Psychology, and The Handbook of Chicana/o Psychology and Mental Health. Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2016 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies, 2015. Arab Migrant Communities in the GCC Zahra Babar, 2017. This volume provides a series of empirically dense analyses of the historical and contemporary dynamics of Arab intra-regional migration to the monarchies of the Persian Gulf and unravels the ways in which particular social and cultural practices of Arab migrants interact with the host states. Among other things, specific contributions allow us to consider the socioeconomic and political factors that have historically shaped the character of the Arab migratory experience, the sorts of work opportunities that Arab migrants have sought in the region, what their work conditions and lived experiences have been, and whether we are able to discern any patterns of sociocultural integration for Arab non-nationals. International Law, Necropolitics, and Arab Lives Khaled Al-Kassimi, 2022-10-27. International Relations and International Law continue to be accented by epistemic violence by naturalizing a separation between law and morality. What does such positivist juridical ethos make possible when considering that both disciplines reify a secular immanent ontology? International Law, Necropolitics, and Arab Lives emphasizes that positivist jurisprudence re-conquered Arabia by subjugating Arab life to the power of death using extrajudicial techniques of violence, seeking the implementation of a New Middle East that is no longer resistant to Latin European modernity but amenable to such exclusionary telos The monograph goes beyond the limited remonstrations asserting that the problematic with both disciplines is that they are primarily Eurocentric Rather the epistemic inquiry uncovers that legalizing necropower is necessary for the temporal coherence of secular modernity since a humanitarian logic masks sovereignty inherently being necropolitical by categorizing Arab Islamic epistemology as an internal external enemy from which nationalist citizenship must be defended This creates a sense of danger around which to unite modern epistemology whilst reinforcing the purity of a particular ontology at the expense of banning and dehumanizing a supposed impure Arab refugee This book will be of interest to graduate students scholars and finally practitioners of international relations political theory philosophical theology and legal theory

Arab Spring I. William Zartman, 2015 Beginning in January 2011 the Arab world exploded in a vibrant demand for dignity liberty and achievable purpose in life rising up against an image and tradition of arrogant corrupt unresponsive authoritarian rule These previously unpublished countryspecific case studies of the uprisings and their still unfolding political aftermaths identify patterns and courses of negotiation and explain why and how they occur The contributors argue that in uprisings like the Arab Spring negotiation is not just a nice practice or a diplomatic exercise Rather it is a dynamically multilevel process involving individuals groups and states with continually shifting priorities and with the prospect of violence always near From that perspective the essays analyze a range of issues and events including civil disobedience and strikes mass demonstrations and nonviolent protest and peaceful negotiation and armed rebellion and contextualize their findings within previous struggles both within and outside the Middle East The Arab countries discussed include Algeria Bahrain Egypt Libya Morocco Syria Tunisia and Yemen The Arab Spring uprisings are discussed in the context of rebellions in countries like South Africa and Serbia while the Libyan uprising is also viewed in terms of the negotiations it provoked within NATO Collectively the essays analyze the challenges of uprisers and emerging governments in building a new state on the ruins of a liberated state the negotiations that lead either to sustainable democracy or sectarian violence and coalition building between former political and military adversaries Contributors Samir Aita Monde Diplomatique Alice Alunni Durham University Marc Anstey Nelson Mandela University Abdelwahab ben Hafaiedh MERC Maarten Danckaert European Bahraini Organization for Human Rights Heba Ezzat Cairo University Amy Hamblin SAIS Abdullah Hamidaddin King's College Fen Hampson Carleton University Roel Meijer Clingendael Karim Mezran Atlantic Council Bessma Momani Waterloo University Samiraital Pres Cercle des Economistes Arabes Aly el Raggal Cairo University Hugh Roberts ICG Tufts University Johannes Theiss College of Europe Sinisa Vukovic Leiden University I William Zartman SAIS JHU Indicates group members of the Processes of International Negotiation PIN Program at Clingendael Netherlands

The United Arab Emirates Kristian Coates Ulrichsen, 2016-12-01 Led by Dubai and Abu Dhabi the UAE has become deeply embedded in the contemporary system of international power politics and policy making Only an independent state since 1971 the seven emirates that constitute the UAE represent not only the most successful Arab federal experiment but also the most durable However the 2008 financial crisis and its aftermath underscored the continuing imbalance between Abu Dhabi and Dubai and the five northern emirates Meanwhile the post 2011 security crackdown revealed the acute sensitivity of officials in Abu Dhabi to social inequalities and economic disparities across the federation The United Arab Emirates Power Politics and Policymaking charts the various processes of state formation and political and economic development that have enabled the UAE to emerge as a significant regional power and major player in the post Arab Spring reordering of Middle East and North African Politics as well as the closest partner of the US in military and security affairs in the region It also explores the seamier underside of that growth in terms of the condition of migrant workers recent interventions in Libya and Yemen and latterly one of the highest rates of political prisoners per capita in the world The book concludes with a discussion of the likely policy challenges that the UAE will face in coming years especially as it moves towards its fiftieth anniversary in 2021 Providing a comprehensive and accessible assessment of the UAE this book will be a vital resource for students and scholars of International Relations and Middle East Studies as well as non specialists with an interest in the United Arab Emirates and its global position
