Conversations with Natasha Trethewey Joan Wylie Hall, 2013-08-28 United States Poet Laureate Natasha Trethewey b 1966 describes her mode as elegiac Although the loss of her murdered mother informs each book Trethewey's range of forms and subjects is wide In compact sonnets elegant villanelles ballad stanzas and free verse she creates monuments to mixed race children of colonial Mexico African American soldiers from the Civil War a beautiful prostitute in 1910 New Orleans and domestic workers from the twentieth century North and South Because her white father and her black mother could not marry legally in Mississippi Trethewey says she was given her subject matter as the daughter of miscegenation A sense of psychological exile is evident from her first collection Domestic Work 2000 to the recent Thrall 2012 Biracial people of the Americas are a major focus of her poetry and her prose book Beyond Katrina a meditation on family community and the natural environment of the Mississippi Gulf Coast The interviews featured within Conversations with Natasha Trethewey provide intriguing artistic and biographical insights into her work The Pulitzer Prize winning poet cites diverse influences from Anne Frank to Seamus Heaney She emotionally acknowledges Rita Dove's large impact and she boldly positions herself in the southern literary tradition of Faulkner and Robert Penn Warren Commenting on Pastoral South and other poems Trethewey guides readers to deeper perception and empathy

Social Development as Preference Management Rachel Karniol, 2010-04-12 Karniol engagingly presents social development in children through the language of preference management Conversational excerpts garnered from around the world trace how parents talk about preferences how infants and children's emergent language conveys their preferences how children themselves are impacted by others' preferences and how they in turn influence the preferences of adults and peers The language of preferences is used to crack into altruism aggression and morality which are ways of coming to terms with other people's preferences Behind the scenes is a cognitive engine that uses transformational thought conducting temporal imaginal and mental transformations to figure out other people's preferences and to find more sophisticated means of outmanoeuvring others by persuading them and playing with one's own mind and other people's minds when preferences are blocked This book is a unique and sometimes amusing must read for anyone interested in child development language acquisition socialisation and communication
