PART 5

- 31 A) Incorrect. They are "extremely rare", not "unique".
B) Incorrect. They are paintings, not paintings.
C) Incorrect. The images are not compared to other cave art in Britain.
D) Correct. "But more importantly, the Church Hole paintings are an incredible artistic achievement."
32 A) Incorrect. This is not stated or implied in the text.
B) Incorrect. The point made is that Ancient Britons "were part of a way of living, thinking and seeing the world that spread across the continent, which is not the same as saying that they hunted over large areas."
C) Correct. "Britons were part of a way of living, thinking and seeing the world that had spread right across the continent."
D) Incorrect. Britons were "at least as sophisticated as" people in Europe.
33 A) Incorrect. The discovery of the images was made public, but the writer does not suggest this should have been avoided. She implies the images should have been protected.
B) Correct. "As a result, some paintings may already have been adversely affected, albeit inadvertently, by eager visitors."
C) Incorrect. The text states that many people know about the paintings within hours of their discovery. But it does not say that they visited the cave within hours of the discovery.
D) Incorrect. Measures were taken too late to prevent damage that had already been done, but the text does not say that the measures themselves are ineffective.

132 Cambridge English: Advanced Papers Answer key

- 34 A) Correct. "However, the Church Hole images are modifications of the rock itself, and show up best when seen from a certain angle in the natural light of early morning."
B) Incorrect. "They had been looking for the usual type of cave drawing or painting."
C) Incorrect. The text does not mention the time of day when the initial survey took place.
D) Incorrect. The text does not suggest that the brightness of the light was a problem.
35 A) Incorrect. This statement does not express the conclusion Dr Sampson draws about the function of the paintings.
B) Incorrect. They intended the images to be visible in the early morning.
C) Correct. "I think the artists knew very well that the paintings would hardly be visible except early in the morning."
D) Incorrect. The text mentions "rituals involving animal worship", but this does not mean that ice-age hunters kept animals in the cave.
36 A) Incorrect. It is implied that we can make inferences, but we cannot "insist on any rigid interpretation."
B) Incorrect. Dr Sampson does not think their function "can be determined with any certainty", but she does not imply they serve no particular purpose.
C) Incorrect. Saying someone knows "as little" is not the same as saying they know nothing.
D) Correct. "We should, in my view, begin by tentatively assuming ... while of course being prepared to modify this verdict at a later date."

PART 6

- 37 D) Writer A's view is: "The early manned space flights generated genuine interest around the world, but who really cares nowadays ...?" Writer B's view is: "It seems to have lost its appeal for many people". Writer C's view is: "People with a vested interest will see that human space flight is important for the prestige and glamour of space exploration and for the way it draws young minds into science and technology" but that it would be more exciting to invest the money in science education." So, A, B and C don't believe manned space flight is inspirational these days. Writer D, however, says: "People do not feel excited when they see robots launched into space. Computers attached to a rocket will not stimulate the imagination or the enthusiasm for space exploration." This implies that manned space flight is what inspires people.
38 D) Writer B's view is that one day there will be a major disaster and the human species may only survive by settling in a new home. If we are to form colonies on the moon or other places in space, we have no alternative but to go there ourselves." Writer C says: "In the long term, we need to find out whether we can survive outside the Earth's orbit. It's a question of species survival." Writer A says: "Who really believes it will ever be feasible to ... migrate to these places in the event of a catastrophe?" Writer E says: "The idea that humans will ever be able to settle on the moon or anywhere else in space is unthinkable." So, writers

Overcoming Managerialism Robert Spillane, Jean-Etienne Joullié, 2022-05-09 Managerialism has often been defined as an ideology according to which the effective and efficient running of commercial firms not for profit organizations and public administrations is delivered by individuals who possess superior formal knowledge and expertise in management Arguing to their exclusive education managers deprive employers and employees of decision making power and ensconce themselves systematically in the power structure of workplaces to advance their own interests and agenda The central thesis of Overcoming Managerialism is that resisting and overcoming managerialism necessitates the re-establishing of the conceptual distinction between power and authority Second it requires the rehabilitating of authoritative management as a protection against authoritarian practices Authority properly conceived redirects power to technical experts and professionals and thereby limits managerial power The authors discuss ten contentions which taken together represent a theory of the foundation of management in which authority power and rhetoric are central concepts This book combines academic scholarship with a readable critique of managerialism It will be of interest to both management scholars and students

Adopting Artificial Intelligence Tools in Higher Education Thangavel Murugan, Karthikeyan Periasamy, A.M. Abirami, 2025-05-27 This edited volume explores the adoption of artificial intelligence AI tools in higher education specifically focusing on student assessment It examines the integration of various AI tools within higher education discussing the challenges and opportunities they present and the innovative solutions they offer. The chapters explore various issues surrounding the use of AI in higher education and propose potential solutions. The book begins with a systematic exploration of AI's potential, presenting innovative ways to ensure fair and accurate assessments that enhance the overall quality of education. It highlights the benefits of AI-powered grading systems that streamline assessment processes, provide timely feedback, and promote fair evaluations. The text discusses how machine learning algorithms can revolutionize assessment methods, allowing individualized adaptive testing tailored to each student's unique needs. Furthermore, it examines natural language processing (NLP) techniques for evaluating student essays by analyzing linguistic features such as grammar and semantic coherence. Moreover, it highlights AI-powered virtual assistants offering personalized feedback and learning recommendations. Case studies illustrate successful AI assessment implementations and methods for improving AI-based evaluations. The book also addresses engagement and success in the post-COVID-19 context. It raises concerns about plagiarism and academic integrity, comparing AI solutions to traditional methods while exploring the challenges associated with adopting AI in education. Educators, administrators, academics, and technology experts working in institutes of higher learning will find this volume compelling. It is also suitable for students taking courses in educational technology, e-learning, and digital learning.

Understanding Contemporary Education

Tom O'Donoghue, 2016-07-15. Understanding Contemporary Education offers an essential exploration of key concepts and issues in education that will allow education studies students as well as trainee and practising teachers to engage in reflection not only on work at the classroom level but on education more broadly. Using detailed examples, the book problematises many popular and taken-for-granted views, allowing the reader to challenge and seriously consider the nature of the education enterprise. In each chapter, a concept is carefully considered with major features, controversies, and strengths and weaknesses highlighted. Key follow-up questions challenge the reader to reflect on specific issues and encourage involvement not just in their own teaching but in the planning and determination of the total programme of their school and where possible that of the nation. The book is divided into seven main parts: The Social Context of Education, Education Policy, Curriculum, Teaching and Learning, Leadership in Education, Teacher Preparation, and International Developments in Education. Drawing upon a wide variety of theoretical positions, Understanding Contemporary Education provides an accessible introduction to key themes and concepts in education, challenging readers to fully consider the purpose of education and to reflect intelligently on issues that affect all schools. It is a must-read book for those on education studies courses as well as trainee and practising teachers.
