2015 Time Table Matric Rewrite:

Frontiers in Environmental Science - Editor's Picks 2021 Martin Siegert, 2021-11-24 Contested Karoo: Interdisciplinary perspectives on change and continuity in South Africa's drylands Cherryl Walker, M Timm Hoffman, 2024-05-15 This interdisciplinary collection explores significant land use changes in South Africa's semi arid Karoo region and their implications for social justice and the environment across different scales. It brings together recent scholarship by established and younger researchers in both the social and the natural sciences to examine the ways in which the Karoo is being reconfigured as a new resource frontier and the tensions and contestations that result. Along with ongoing mining major investments in astronomy notably the Square Kilometre Array radio telescope in renewable and non renewable sources of energy solar wind potential shale gas mining in biodiversity conservation and commercial game farming are reshaping land use and authority in this vast and long marginalised area. While promising significant benefits to society at large these developments are built on older histories of dispossession and extractivism histories that many Karoo residents fear are being reproduced in new forms today. Collectively these dynamics place this unique region at the centre of national and global concerns around climate change the politics of knowledge production the conservation of threatened biodiversity and the meaning and possibility of sustainable development. These issues are explored through a series of case studies of selected developments complemented by chapters providing more historical context and general overviews. While challenging perceptions of this region as a peripheral wasteland this collection raises conceptual and policy questions that resonate far beyond the Karoo itself. It also highlights the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration in research aimed not only at understanding but also at responding appropriately to the mounting challenges of our time.

Empowering Women in Academia: Improving Methods, Practices, and Approaches for Change and Transformation (IMPACT) Kincade, Lolita L., Brossette, Alicia, Lacy, Constance, Benjamin, Crystal, 2025-03-07 Empowering women in academia is essential for fostering diversity equity and inclusion within educational institutions. The Improving Methods Practices and Approaches for Change and Transformation IMPACT initiative aims to address systemic barriers that hinder women's advancement in academic careers by advocating for structural changes developing support networks and promoting leadership opportunities. By rethinking traditional academic practices and embracing innovative approaches IMPACT seeks to create an equitable environment where women can thrive as researchers educators and leaders. Further research of the initiative may inspire a more inclusive and transformative future for academia that benefits all students faculty and institutions. Empowering Women in Academia Improving Methods Practices and Approaches for Change and Transformation IMPACT explores the recruitment retention and success of women administrators faculty and staff in academic environments. It examines the lived experiences of women faculty and leaders including unique intersectional experiences and experiences of women from underrepresented groups. This book covers topics such as gender studies imposter syndrome and sociology and is a useful resource for educators administrators academicians sociologists and researchers Unsaturated Soil Mechanics - from Theory to Practice Zhenghan Chen, Changfu Wei, De'an Sun, Xongfu Xu, 2015-10-14 In the past decades advances have been made in the research and practice on unsaturated soil mechanics In 2000 the first Asia Pacific Conferences on Unsaturated Soils was organized in Singapore Since then four conferences have been held under the continued support of the Technical Committee on Unsaturated Soils TC106 of the International Socie Advancements in Urban Environmental Studies Atiqur Rahman, Shouraseni Sen Roy, Swapan Talukdar, Shahfahad, 2023-03-03 According to UN estimates approximately nearly half of the world s population now lives in cities and that figure is expected to rise to almost 70% by 2050 Cities now account for around 70% of worldwide greenhouse gas emissions and this percentage is predicted to rise in the near future as a result of projected increases in global urbanization patterns It is widely acknowledged that irrational urban planning and design can increase emissions while also exacerbating threats and risks resulting in a slew of environmental issues such as urban heat islands air pollution flooding amongst other issues as well as environmental social and economic losses Therefore these concerns must be addressed promptly in order to cope up with these rising difficulties and make urban environments safer for residents With the advancement of remote sensing technology and the use of current remote observation systems urban data science remote sensing and artificial intelligence AI modeling and quantifying emergent difficulties in urban regions and urban systems have become easy They aid in the quantitative analysis of urban shape functions and human behavior in cities Harvesting data developing models and suggesting new methodologies will be aided by combining urban ecology with new breakthroughs in data science This book is of great value to a diverse group of academicians scientists students environmentalists meteorologists urban planners remote sensing and GIS experts with a common interest in geospatial sciences within the earth environmental sciences as well as human and social sciences The Palgrave Handbook of Global Rehabilitation in Criminal Justice Maurice Vanstone, Philip Priestley, 2022-11-22 This handbook provides a unique overview of rehabilitation as practiced internationally in criminal justice Through the contributions of a diverse group that includes among others academics some of whom are former practitioners research students a judge and a probation chief it reflects common features of criminal justice in different countries and documents their diversity and celebrates their vitality In recent times the idea of law and order has been expropriated by populist authoritarian and doctrinaire regimes almost always and nearly everywhere in the service of arbitrary and unjust rule By and large this handbook does not include such regimes But law itself also has the capacity to constrain rulers and order in the form of social peace is a universally approved civic asset In part the book provides a counter narrative demonstrating that although criminal justice dispositions such as probation prisons and parole can be represented as a via dolorosa rehabilitation as illustrated in these pages can become a journey that leads by degrees towards the possibility of a better life The handbook will be of interest to students academics practitioners managers policy makers and all those who wish to gain insight into the why and the how of rehabilitation in
