Out of Exodus Darryl W. Stephens, Michael I. Alleman, Andrea Brown, Ruth A. Daugherty, Mary Merriman, 2018-05-02
Biblical and progressive Mainline and charismatic Faithful and questioning This book is not what you think it is The story of the Exodus is told in parallel with testimonies sermons and personal reflections from a congregation in Lancaster Pennsylvania challenging the reader to a journey of faith Along the way it becomes clear that open and affirming ministry transcends LGBTQIA inclusion It is also about race relations poverty generational change divorce immigration and any other human created barrier to loving God and neighbor Tools for the journey Finding a new voice amid profound social change is a difficult and vitally important task Many congregations and entire denominations are in the process of figuring out how to express a new voice of faith particularly in our understanding of sexuality and gender Christians are experiencing nothing less than a holy disruption caused by the Spirit among us The book concludes with a discussion of challenges to community and ministry Helpful appendices provide congregational resources and discussion questions for group study The stories in this book include experiences of and with persons in many denominational settings Roman Catholic Unitarian Universalist Presbyterian Church in Taiwan Metropolitan Community Church United Church of Christ United Brethren Church of the Brethren Society of Friends Quakers and United Methodist This is truly an ecumenical journey

Race and Social Policy
Sandra Edmonds Crewe, 2022-11-10 Social policy is not blind It has been at the forefront of perpetuating structural inequality in many of the systems charged with serving and protecting The impact of race on social policy is linked to historical intended and unintended patterns of discrimination that have resulted in disparate impact for many across their life course This book uses critical race theory to examine key social policies The chapters give primacy to addressing the experiences of African Americans in navigating systems that are flawed by structural racism and yet too often attribute individual pathology rather than systemic injustice to the worsening life circumstances they find themselves in Using scholarship personal and professional experiences the contributors offer valuable insight on differential treatment and the resulting missed opportunities to address historical barriers that if not addressed will continue the cycle of harm for marginalized members in society The Covid 19 pandemic along with the loss of Black lives through carceral injustices have amplified the national discourse about race and social policy Additionally critical race theory has been championed by many as a framework for understanding the structural inequalities that plague our nation Others have assailed the theory as promoting hate guilt and divisiveness The contributors use critical race theory in combination with other theoretical frameworks to provide context for the persistent and pernicious injustices that have historically plagued society Their work offers context with the goal of policy changes aimed at eradicating systemic injustices that negatively impact quality of life Race and Social Policy is a significant new contribution to understanding and addressing systemic and structural racism and it will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of social work politics public policy and sociology This book was originally published as a special issue of

, 2022-09-09 The quest for Christian unity has traditionally been initiated at the international level between official leaders of Christian denominations with the effects of their dialogue expected to trickle down to local Christian communities In Grassroots Ecumenism Karen Petersen Finch upends this process proposing an approach to Christian unity that begins in your neighborhood Finch draws directly from her experience equipping everyday Christians to know their own Christian tradition more thoroughly and to engage thoughtfully with separated Christians down the street and around the corner

Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual
