Critical Approaches to Teaching the High School Novel Crag Hill, Victor Malo-Juvera, 2018-10-25 This edited collection will turn a critical spotlight on the set of texts that has constituted the high school canon of literature for decades. By employing a set of fresh vibrant critical lenses such as youth studies and disabilities studies that are often unfamiliar to advanced students and scholars of secondary English, this book provides divergent approaches to traditional readings and pedagogical practices surrounding these familiar works. By introducing and applying these interpretive frames to the field of secondary English education, this book demonstrates that there is more to say about these texts: ways to productively problematize them and to reconfigure how they may be read and used in the classroom.

Common Core Curriculum: English, Grades 9-12 Great Minds, 2014-04-16. Common Core's English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English Language Arts (ELA) and build essential content knowledge for students in grades 9-12. Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics. Features of this book include: Six thematic units for each grade, each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts; Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills; Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science, art, and history into English instruction. This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text, updated web resources, and refreshed suggested works. Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core's Wheatley Portfolio guarantee that students are exposed to content-rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading, writing, speaking, listening, and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA.

English Journal, 1988. Elements of Literature, 1997. Indo-Caribbean Feminist Thought Gabrielle Jamela Hosein, Lisa Outar, 2016-11-25. Bringing together three generations of scholars, thinkers, and activists, this book is the first to trace a genealogy of the specific contributions Indo-Caribbean women have made to Caribbean feminist epistemology and knowledge production. Challenging the centrality of India in considerations of the forms that Indo-Caribbean feminist thought and praxis have taken, the authors turn instead to the terrain of gender negotiations among Caribbean men and women within and across racial, class, religious, and political affiliations. Addressing the specific conditions which emerged within the region and highlighting the cross-racial solidarities and the challenges to narratives of purity that have been constitutive of Indo-Caribbean feminist thought, this collection connects to the broader indentureship diaspora and what can be considered post-indentureship feminist thought. Through examinations of literature, activism, art, biography, scholarship, and public sphere practices, the collection highlights the complexity and richness of Indo-Caribbean engagements with feminism and social justice.
