

Caving in Daveley Dale

Welcome to Daveley Dale!

Every year thousands of people come here to make a once-in-a-lifetime journey underground.

Above ground, Daveley Dale is a place of wild and rugged beauty. Below the ground, hidden under the hills, is a maze of caverns, rivers, lakes and tunnels: stunning in colour and form. A network of over 20 kilometres of caves has been discovered and now five kilometres of passages have finally been opened to the public.

Caving has something for everyone. Take a gentle stroll and a boat ride through the magnificent Daveley Dale caves and take home a souvenir from the gift shop. Or, if you fancy something more exciting ... put on your climbing boots and a safety helmet, and come to Daveley Hole. Here you can experience the sheer terror and delight of a crawl through 800 metres of tiny tunnels.

For young people wanting to take up caving, this is the perfect place to start. Girls and boys can enjoy the wonder of our fabulous caves, led by qualified instructors in a safe environment.

Take this opportunity of an unforgettable visit underground.

The Road Back to Sweetgrass Linda LeGarde Grover, 2014-09-01 Set in northern Minnesota The Road Back to Sweetgrass follows Dale Ann Theresa and Margie a trio of American Indian women from the 1970s to the present observing their coming of age and the intersection of their lives as they navigate love economic hardship loss and changing family dynamics on the fictional Mozhay Point reservation. As young women all three leave their homes Margie and Theresa go to Duluth for college and work there. Theresa gets to know a handsome Indian boy Michael Washington who invites her home to the Sweetgrass land allotment to meet his father Zho Wash who lives in the original allotment cabin. When Margie accompanies her complicated relationships are set into motion and tensions over real Indian ness emerge. Dale Ann Margie and Theresa find themselves pulled back again and again to the Sweetgrass allotment a silent but ever present entity in the book sweetgrass.

itself is a plant used in the Ojibwe ceremonial odissimaa bag containing a newborn baby's umbilical cord. In a powerful final chapter, Zho Wash tells the story of the first days of the allotment when the Wazhushkag or Muskrat family became transformed into the Washingtons by the pen of a federal Indian agent. This sense of place and home is both tangible and spiritual, and Linda LeGarde Grover skillfully connects it with the experience of Native women who came of age during the days of the federal termination policy and the struggle for tribal self-determination. The Road Back to Sweetgrass is a novel that moves between past and present, the Native and the non-Native history and myth, and tradition and survival as the people of Mozhay Point navigate traumatic historical events and federal Indian policies while looking ahead to future generations and the continuation of the Anishinaabe people. Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19. This powerful text encourages both pre-service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education. Promoting a critical approach, the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects. At the same time, the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life. The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding, thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns. Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading, mathematics, languages, early years education, and the use of technology. With annotated further reading and reflective questions, this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice, including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level, practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development, and teacher educators. The Motor Ship, 1968 Film World and A-V World News Magazines, 1954 Braby's Commercial Directory of Southern Africa, 1988
