Experts,2019-08-04 ECGBL2015-9th European Conference on Games Based Learning Robin Munkvold and Line

Kolås,2015-09-18 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 9th European Conference on Games Based Learning which is being hosted this year by Nord Trondelag University College Steinkjer Norway on the 8-9 October 2015. The Conference has become a key platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different areas and specialties within Games Based Learning. It also offers the opportunity for like-minded individuals to meet, discuss and share knowledge. ECGBL continues to evolve and develop and the wide range of papers and topics will ensure an interesting two-day conference. In addition to the main streams of the conference, there are mini tracks focusing on the areas of the design of multiplayer collaborative serious games, applied Games and gamification, the teacher's role in game-based learning, games for STEM, Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics, learning, assessment of digital game-based learning and pervasive and ubiquitous gaming for learning. In addition to the presentations of research, we are delighted to host the third year of the Serious Game competition, which provides an opportunity for educational game designers and creators to participate in the conference and demonstrate their game design and development skills in an international competition. This competition is again sponsored by SEGAN Serious Games Network. With an initial submission of more than 60 games, 28 finalists will present their games at the conference. Prizes will be awarded to the games judged to demonstrate the best quality and originality of game play itself and the positioning and articulation of the game's contribution to the educational domain. With an initial submission of 190 abstracts, after the double-blind peer review process, there are 75 research papers, 15 PhD research papers, 4 Non-Academic papers and 8 work-in-progress papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers represent research from more than 40 countries including Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Malaysia, Norway, Portugal, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, ROC, The Netherlands, The Netherlands, United Arab Emirates, UK and USA.

November 2019 Monthly Current Affairs with MCQs for Competitive Exams Disha Experts,2019-10-21 Forms of Life Harry Collins,2019-02-12 A concise, accessible and engaging guide for students and practitioners of sociology. In Forms of Life, Harry Collins offers an introduction to social science methodology, drawing on his forty-plus years of conducting high-profile sociological research. In this concise, accessible and engaging book, Collins explains not only how to do sociology, the method, but also how to think about sociology, the meaning. For example, he describes the three activities that are the foundations of sociological method: immersing oneself in a society, estranging oneself from that society, and explaining what has been discovered to those who have not been immersed, and goes on to consider broader questions of the meaning of science in relation to social science and the scientific authority of subjective methods He explains that sociology is the study of social collectivities often overlapping subdividable and embedded and cites Wittgenstein's notion of forms of life in his definition of collectivity Collins covers such methodological topics as participant comprehension interview based fieldwork expect plans to fail interactional expertise alternation and methodological relativism tangible and inferential experiments tribalism and emotional loyalty and how to communicate your findings Finally he offers recommendations for saving the science of sociology considering among other things sociology's identity as a discipline and the perils of both groupism and being too afraid of it Appendixes offer a code of conduct for interviews a list of his relevant publications and an account in Q A form of a disastrous day in the life of a sociologist doing fieldwork Environmental Studies YCT Expert Team , 2022 23 CTET TET Environmental Studies Solved Papers
