Cheek* Christina Cheek Ross, 2022-10-24 Born into a lower middle class depression era farming community in northwestern Missouri

Carroll B Cheek was a product of his time During the depression there was a constant fight for survival Jobs housing even food were scarce Farming kept families alive Children worked to help support the family Everyone did their part Play was a luxury few people enjoyed To put it mildly the United States of America was in crisis Not before or since the crash of 1929 that caused the Great Depression has the US posted such high unemployment rates low salary wages and lack of sustainability People relied on each other Everyone but the very rich suffered The outbreak of World War II provided jobs whether in the military or on the home front Everyone pitched in for the war effort After the war military personnel came home to a thriving economy where suburbs were developed outside major cities The age of convenience was born in the 1950s and processed food filled the grocery stores Track housing was designed to mass produce shelter and appliances relieved the hard work of washing clothes cleaning floors and preparing food Cheek as he came to be called was prepared for anything life could throw at him Known in the world of racing Carroll Cheek was something of an enigma He knew mechanics He could build any type of engine This understanding seemed natural to him as he did not go to college or trade school to learn mechanics While he had jobs in the world of automobile mechanics dairy distribution and his own company of oil and gas storage Delta Tank he always migrated back to his first love building and restoring engines He built race car engines He built airplane engines He built dune buggy and motorcycle engines To say he liked to go fast is an understatement He loved to go fast The faster the better He far exceeded the nine lives allotted to any human being He survived multiple race car motorcycle and airplane crashes He lived with someone else s liver in his body He made surviving death an art This is the story of a man who knew few boundaries always creating new ones and lived life on his terms This is the story of the life and times of Carroll B Cheek

American Cars, 1960-1965 J. "Kelly" Flory, Jr.,2023-07-06 The automotive industry underwent great change in the 1960s The continuing trend toward market consolidation the proliferation of sizes and nameplates and the need for speed characterized this period loosely labeled as the muscle car era This is an exhaustive reference work to American made cars of model years 1960 1965 Organized by year and summarizing the market annually it provides a yearly update on each make s status and production figures then details all models offered for that year Model listings include available body styles base prices engine and transmission choices power ratings standard equipment major options and their prices curb weight and dimensions interior and exterior paint color choices changes from the previous year s model and sales figures Also given are assembly plant locations and historical overviews of each model nameplate
