Tourism, Philanthropy and School Tours in Zimbabwe Kathleen Smithers,2024-08-05 This book explores the phenomena of school tours and tourism It explores tensions of authenticity and artificiality in the school site being both a place of community learning and a spectacle for tourism consumption Through the example of a school in Matabeleland North Zimbabwe the book examines the act of a school tour whose main aim is to providing fund for the school

It offers a unique interdisciplinary lens that examines both the school as a tourism destination and as a site of learning. By drawing on these two fields, the book provides insights into the tensions inherent in a school that is also a tourism destination. This book will demonstrate to readers the tensions present in tourism partnerships with schools that include some source of philanthropic funding and unpack the complexities of tourism that draws on stereotypical cultural images. It explores these tensions through the lens of school leaders, students, teachers, and tourism personnel. The book provides a major and unique contribution to the field of tourism studies and education. It will be of interest to students and researchers interested in tourism studies, sociology, education, philanthropy, development studies, and the Global South.

Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe Shizha, Edward, 2013-12-07. The role of education in human well-being and social development cannot be overestimated. After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence, the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying. This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980. The book is targeted at academics, scholars, college and university students, policy makers, and other stakeholders and advocates a multi-pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation, reconstruction, and restoration are to be achieved. The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe.

Zimbabwe Medium Term Plan, 2011 - 2015, 2011. Social Justice and Culturally-Affirming Education in K-12 Settings Chitiyo, Jonathan, Pietrantonio, Zachary, 2023-01-27. Social justice is a philosophy that has gathered momentum over the past few years to bring to light the inequities that exist within our society. In the field of education, social justice illuminates the challenges that marginalized students and minority students face compared to other students. Social Justice and Culturally Affirming Education in K-12 Settings seeks to bring together social scientists, researchers, and other practitioners to delve into social justice issues in K-12 settings and considers the various challenges and future directions that are associated with this field. Covering key topics such as inclusive education, educational reform, and school policies, this reference work is ideal for administrators, policymakers, researchers, academicians, practitioners, scholars, instructors, and students.

Mapping research and innovation in the Republic of Zimbabwe Lemarchand, Guillermo A., Schneegans, Susan, 2014-08-11. Discrimination and Access to Justice in Africa Wellman Kondowe, Paul Svongoro, 2025-05-23. There are different forms of discrimination. Among others, people can be discriminated against on the basis of their ethnic grouping, political affiliation, race, gender, age, and language. This book focuses on linguistic discrimination in Africa, acknowledging that language plays a key role in the delivery of justice and much of what transpires in justice systems deals with language use. It argues that to achieve fairness, the state has a responsibility to put in place accommodations aimed at reducing linguistic vulnerability. The collection interrogates some of the issues that are common in Africa which is arguably one of the most linguistically diverse continents in the world bringing together a collection of case studies from Malawi South Africa Zimbabwe Tanzania Kenya and Zambia It presents practical insights from academics legal professionals and social scientists Divided into five thematic parts the first addresses communication and linguistic challenges faced by children in the legal system Theme 2 examines the position of witnesses with physical challenges The third theme focuses on language as a barrier in access to justice Theme 4 looks at the language of the court as a major barrier to the poor and the illiterate The fifth and final theme examines the position of women in sexual assault cases The collection will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law and language human rights law criminology linguistics and African Studies

Education, Youth and Migration in Contexts of Disadvantage Faith Mkwanaenzi, 2018-11-30. This book explores the lives, experiences, and the formation of higher educational aspirations among marginalised migrant youth in South Africa. Using a case study based in Johannesburg, the author illuminates their voices in order to demonstrate the reality faced by these young people in the context of migration to the Global South. Within the complex landscape of global and African migration, this book draws on detailed narratives to understand the conditions under which aspirations for higher education are or are not developed. In doing so, the author highlights the value of understanding individual lives, experiences, and opportunities from a human development point of view, capturing the multidimensional disadvantages experienced by migrants in a balanced, intersectional manner. Balancing empirical data with theoretical analysis, this volume tells a rich, nuanced story about marginalised migrant youth, an essential work for understanding the conditions necessary for such youth to live valuable lives in both local and international contexts. This book will appeal to students and scholars of youth migration, aspiration, and educational opportunities, particularly within the Global South.
