

ASSETS

Assets are resources owned by a business that have economic value and can be converted into cash. They are divided into current assets and non-current assets.

Current Assets are assets that are expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include cash, accounts receivable, inventory, and prepaid expenses.

Non-current Assets are assets that are not expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include property, plant, and equipment, and intangible assets like patents and trademarks.

LIABILITIES

Liabilities are obligations or debts that a business owes to other parties. They are divided into current liabilities and non-current liabilities.

Current Liabilities are liabilities that are due within one year. Examples include accounts payable, short-term debt, and accrued expenses.

Non-current Liabilities are liabilities that are due after more than one year. Examples include long-term debt, pension liabilities, and deferred tax liabilities.

RETAINED EARNINGS

Retained Earnings represent the portion of a company's profits that are retained within the company rather than being distributed to shareholders as dividends. They are calculated as accumulated profits minus dividends or drawings.

Accumulated Profits represent the total profits that a company has earned since its inception, less any dividends or drawings that have been paid out.

Dividends or Drawings represent the portion of a company's profits that are distributed to shareholders or withdrawn by the owner.

EQUITY

Equity represents the ownership interest in a business. It is divided into contributed capital and retained earnings.

Contributed Capital represents the amount of capital that has been contributed by the owners of the business.

Retained Earnings represent the portion of a company's profits that are retained within the company rather than being distributed to shareholders as dividends.
