Resources in Education, 1990 Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham, Gary A. Troia, Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar, 2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature Anthem Guide to Essay Writing Carole L. Hamilton, 2011 plan write and revise your essay draft Objection Debra Lieberman, Carlton Patrick, 2018-07-03 Why do we consider incest wrong even when it occurs between consenting adults unable to have children Why are words that gross us out more likely to be deemed obscene and denied the protection of the First Amendment In a world where a gruesome photograph can decisively influence a jury and homosexual behavior is still condemned by some as unnatural it is worth asking is our legal system really governed by the power of reason Or do we allow a primitive human emotion disgust to guide us in our lawmaking In Objection psychologists Debra Lieberman and Carlton Patrick examine disgust and its impact on the legal system to show why the things that we find stomach turning so often become the things that we render unlawful Shedding light on the evolutionary and psychological origins of disgust the authors reveal how ancient human intuitions about what is safe to eat or touch or who would make an advantageous mate have become co opted by moral systems designed to condemn behavior and identify groups of people ripe for marginalization Over time these moral stances have made their way into legal codes and disgust has thereby served as the impetus for laws against behaviors almost universally held to be disgusting corpse desecration bestiality and as the implicit justification for more controversial prohibitions homosexuality use of pornography Written with a critical eye on current events Lieberman and Patrick build a case for a more reasoned approach to lawmaking in a system that often confuses gross with wrong The Collected Essays of Milton Babbitt Milton Babbitt,2011-10-16 Like his compositions Milton Babbitt s writings about music have exerted an extraordinary influence on postwar music and thinking about music In essays and public addresses spanning fifty years Babbitt has grappled profoundly with central questions in the composition and apprehension of music These writings range from personal memoirs and critical reviews to closely reasoned metatheoretical speculations and technical exegesis In the history of music theory there has been only a small handful of figures who have produced work of comparable stature Taken as a whole Babbitt s writings are not only an invaluable testimony to his thinking a priceless primary source for the intellectual and cultural history of the second half of the twentieth century but also a remarkable achievement in their own right Prior to this collection Babbitt s writings were scattered through a wide variety of journals books and magazines many hard to find and some unavailable and often contained typographical errors and editorial corruptions of various kinds This volume of almost fifty pieces gathers corrects and annotates virtually everything of significance that Babbitt has written The result is complete authoritative and fully accessible the definitive source of Babbitt s influential ideas Resources in Education,1982 Lapidari Vincent Van Gerven Oei,2015 In June and July 2014 philologist Vincent W J van Gerven Oei and photographer Marco Mazzi undertook the Albanian Lapidar Survey a project to map document and photograph the large majority of Albanian lapidars a particular type of monument mainly produced in the period that the communist Labor Party of Albania ruled the country 1945 1990 to commemorate the partisan victims battles and military units from the National Anti Fascist Liberation War which coincided with World War II as well as historical figures from before the liberation and the accomplishments of socialism in Albania afterward These lapidars which can still be found albeit in ever decreasing numbers all over the country in cities and villages alongside roads in forests and on mountain passes are witness to an enormous expenditure of labor and resources to turn the landscape into a site of what was called monumental propaganda The Albanian Lapidar Survey aimed to capture these monuments as fact The results of this project are collected into a three volume dual language English and Albanian catalogue under the title Lapidari The first volume comprises a series of critical reflections on Albanian monumentality of the period 1945 1990 from a variety of perspectives as well as historical documents
