Introduction

Introducing Vista through Windows Setup has always represented a challenge to Vista users. Before Vista, Vista's language support was limited to the Windows XP language pack and the Windows XP Service Pack 2 (SP2) language pack. The Vista language pack was not available until the Windows XP SP2 language pack was released. This meant that Vista users had to wait for the Windows XP SP2 language pack to be released before they could install Vista. This was a significant delay for Vista users who wanted to install Vista on their new hardware. The Vista language pack was released on October 26, 2006, and it was available for download from the Windows Update website.
