Lopičić,2012-04-25 This book Challenging Change Literary and Linguistic Responses is a collection of twenty three articles which examine change understood in the broadest sense as the need of the modern man to redefine revise deconstruct and reconstruct previous theories histories moralities social relationships forms of language and language use In these times of great change when the only constant seems to be change itself the authors of these essays respond to the challenge and approach the notion of change from the perspectives of literary studies and linguistics The book opens with an introductory overview followed by twenty three articles divided into two sections The authors of the articles come from Serbia Bosnia and Herzegovina Romania the United States Canada Japan and Norway Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1864

The Publishers' Circular ,1864 The Critique of Theological Reason James P. Mackey,2000-10-12 Far from merely reinvigorating relativism postmodernism has detected and expressed in our time a powerful nihilating process of which truth and reality itself are the final casualties and with these morality and religion Beginning from the theological reaches of philosophy this book argues that gods played a crucial part in modern philosophy even when it was most critical of them that the dominant nihilism of Derrida is really an excessive and misleading outcome of a contemporary philosophy which could otherwise resonate with all that is best in our evolutionary image of the universe that moralists who turn to art in order to overcome the fact value version of this deadly dualism do not thereby rule out religion and that a Christian theology which recognises the evolutionary and historical conditions of faith and revelation is once again producing a theology that builds upon the best of contemporary philosophy and science Evangelicals and Electoral Politics in Latin America Taylor C. Boas,2023-01-26 Why are religious minorities well represented and politically influential in some democracies but not others Focusing on evangelical Christians in Latin America this book argues that religious minorities seek and gain electoral representation when they face significant threats to their material interests and worldview and when their community is not internally divided by cross cutting cleavages Differences in Latin American evangelicals political ambitions emerged as a result of two critical junctures episodes of secular reform in the early twentieth century and the rise of sexuality politics at the turn of the twenty first In Brazil significant threats at both junctures prompted extensive electoral mobilization in Chile minimal threats meant that mobilization lagged In Peru where major cleavages divide both evangelicals and broader society threats prompt less electoral mobilization than otherwise expected The multi method argument leverages interviews content analysis survey experiments ecological analysis and secondary case studies of Colombia Costa Rica and Guatemala
