Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists Julien Bogousslavsky, M. G. Hennerici, H. Baezner, C. Bassetti, 2010-01-01 The third part of Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists presents painters musicians and writers who had to fight against an acute or chronic neurological disease Sometimes this fight was without success e.g. Shostakovich Schumann Wolf Pascal but often a dynamic and paradoxical creativity of the clinical disorder was integrated into their artistic production e.g. Klee Ramuz Occasionally some even wrote the first report of a medical condition they observed in themselves like Stendhal who made a detailed report of aphasic transient ischemic attacks before dying of stroke shortly thereafter In rarer instances a neurological disease was inaccurately attributed to an artist in order to explain certain features of his work de Chirico Schiele Some chapters in this publication focus on neurological conditions reported in artistic work including descriptions by Shakespeare and Dumas Bringing new light to both artists and neurological conditions this book serves as a valuable and entertaining read for neurologists psychiatrists physicians and anybody interested in arts literature and music Birth of the Cool Lewis MacAdams, 2012-04-10 Miles Davis and Juliette Greco Jackson Pollock and Jack Kerouac Marlon Brando and Bob Dylan and William Burroughs What do all these people have in common Fame of course and undeniable talent But most of all they were cool Birth of the Cool is a stunningly illustrated brilliantly written cultural history of the American avant-garde in the 1940s and 1950s the decades in which cool was born From intimate interviews with cool icons like poet Allen Ginsberg bop saxophonist Jackie McLean and Living Theatre cofounder Judith Malina award winning journalist and poet Lewis MacAdams extracts the essence of cool Taking us inside the most influential and experimental art movements of the twentieth century from the Harlem jazz joints where Dizzy Gillespie and Charlie Parker invented bebop to the back room at Max's Kansas City when Andy Warhol was holding court to backstage at the Newport Folk Festival the night Bob Dylan went electric from Surrealism to the Black Mountain School to Zen MacAdams traces the evolution of cool from the very fringes of society to the mainstream Born of World War II raised on atomic age paranoia cast out of the culture by the realities of racism and the insanity of the Cold War cool is now perversely as conventional as you can get Allen Ginsberg suited up for Gap ads Volvo appropriated a phrase from Jack Kerouac's On the Road for its TV commercials How one became the other is a terrific story and it is presented here in a gorgeous package rich with the coolest photographs of the black and white era from Robert Doisneau Henri Cartier Bresson Man Ray and many others Drawing a direct line between Lester Young wearing his pork pie hat and his crepe sole shoes staring out his hotel window at Birdland to the author's three year old daughter saying cool while watching a Scooby Doo cartoon at the cusp of a new millennium Birth of the Cool is a cool book about a hot subject maybe even the coolest book ever
