Scientific Practice Jed Z. Buchwald, 1995-11 Most recent work on the nature of experiment in physics has focused on big science the large scale research addressed in Andrew Pickering's Constructing Quarks and Peter Galison's How Experiments End This book examines small scale experiment in physics in particular the relation between theory and practice The contributors focus on interactions among the people materials and ideas involved in experiments factors that have been relatively neglected in science studies The first half of the book is primarily philosophical with contributions from Andrew Pickering Peter Galison Hans Radder Brian Baigrie and Yves Gingras Among the issues they address are the resources deployed by theoreticians and experimenters the boundaries that constrain theory and practice the limits of objectivity the reproducibility of results and the intentions of researchers The second half is devoted to historical case studies in the practice of physics from the early nineteenth to the early twentieth century These chapters address failed as well as successful experimental work ranging from Victorian astronomy through Hertz's investigation of cathode rays to Trouton's attempt to harness the ether Contributors to this section are Jed Z Buchwald Giora Hon Margaret Morrison Simon Schaffer and Andrew Warwick With a lucid introduction by Ian Hacking and original articles by noted scholars in the history and philosophy of science this book is poised to become a significant source on the nature of small scale experiment in physics na , The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas Animals and Agency Sarah McFarland, Ryan

Hediger, 2009-06-02 While many scholars who write about animals deal with animal agency in some way this volume is the first to position the question of nonhuman agency as the primary focus of inquiry Section I presents studies of actual animals demonstrating agency Section II moves agency into new terrain while considering key representations of animal agency in literature Section III analyzes animals as mediators and as conveyances of human to human communication and Section IV investigates the agency of beings who defy conventional species categories The Envoi demonstrates how the microscopic polyp is interwoven into notions of agency and mythical superagency This volume's interdisciplinary explorations press hard on issues of agency to open up space for more questions about how we can understand relationships between the human and the nonhuman Making Our Beasts Elana Shever, 2025-12-30 A free ebook version of this title is available through
