Dear Meredith,

As I was turning on the office lights one morning last week, I was startled by a loud bang on the door. I rushed to see what it was and was met by two young women bearing the weight of a listless golden retriever.

When Peanut first arrived, she was in desperate need of medical attention. She had been neglected by her former owner and her health was declining rapidly.

Unfortunately, this story is all too common. More and more abused and neglected pets are treated at our office each week.

But...these women who brought Peanut in knew where to turn. At the Animal Adoption Center, we provide medical care and find forever homes for cats and dogs that have been hurt or neglected.

Meredith, when you donated in April, you made it possible for this team of dedicated volunteers and veterinarians to jump in to help Peanut when she needed it most. Because you gave, Peanut is now healthy, happy and ready to find her new home.

But there are many other animals still in need of our help and love. That's why, this year-end, we're asking for your help. Will you give $50 to help more pets like Peanut?

Your gift means more animals will have the care they need at Animal Adoption Center until they find their fur-ever homes. Make your year-end gift today.

Sincerely,
