Who Is Mary? Linda Byler, 2024-08-06 The first book in a new Amish romance series by beloved novelist Linda Byler an active member of the Amish church With her copper red hair and inquisitive personality Mary is an anomaly in her Amish community in western New York She tries to join in the fun with the other youth as they gather for hymn singings and games but she finds it all rather dull None of the young men are interested in her and she s even less interested in them With each passing year she feels more and more out of place and stifled by life as a misfit in a rural Amish community When her aunt comes for a visit and suggests she return to Lancaster with her to help manage her bakery Mary sees her opportunity for the change she s desperately craving But her parents forbid her to go her father convinced that leaving the family for the busy life of Lancaster will lead her down a path of destruction Mary is deeply distressed wanting to honor her parents wishes and also knowing she can t stay trapped in their isolated community forever At twenty one she s old enough to decide for herself and yet it s painful to be at odds with her father Will she go despite her father s dire warnings If she stays will she just continue to disappoint her parents asking too many questions and never finding a man to marry One thing is sure Before she can even think about dating she needs to figure out who she is and where she belongs And that might require a boldness she didn t know she possessed

Responding to Polar Questions across Languages and Contexts Galina B. Bolden, John Heritage, Marja-Leena Sorjonen, 2023-12-15 This book is about one of the most fundamental action sequences found across human societies and socio cultural contexts polar questions and their responses Question answer sequences are among the most basic building blocks for sequences of action in interaction and are ubiquitous among the languages of the world Among different types of questions polar questions are the most common occurring with greater frequency in all studied languages This volume presents a collection of conversation analytic studies into responses to polar questions across ten different typologically diverse languages in a range of action environments and social contexts The studies explore different ways in which speakers can respond to polar questions and the relationships between response design the action implemented by the response and the context in which it occurs Taken together the studies assembled in the volume present a nuanced view of polar responses as a situated social action
