Worshippers of the Gods Mattias P. Gassman,2020 Worshippers of the Gods shows how fourth century Latin writers rethought traditional religion during Christianity s rise Through five interlocking studies of inscriptions laws senatorial papers and Christian polemics it traces shifting conceptions of paganism from the Tetrarchic persecution through Constantine s reign to the disestablishment of the Roman cults in the 380s

Conversations and Controversies in the Scientific Study of Religion ,2016-02-15 Luther H Martin and Donald Wiebe together have spent the better part of a century exploring possibilities for a scientific study of religion The following essays are a record of their conversations together and of their conversations and controversies with a number of leading scholars in religious studies that address that possibility As with any scientific endeavor knowledge advances when research assumptions and experimental designs are collegially discussed and critically assessed It is hoped that these essays might provide the occasion for scholars in the field to discuss the theoretical and methodological issues they have raised to debate and expand upon them or in the spirit of forthright scientific inquiry to refute the arguments they have made Bollettino dei Musei Comunali N.S.XXVI/2012

Lieu,2024-11-11 As allegiance to Jesus Christ

spread across the Roman Empire in the second century writings practices and ideas erupted in a creative maelstrom Many of the patterns of practice and belief that later become normative emerged in the midst of debate and argument with neighbours who shared or who rejected that allegiance Authoritative texts principles of argument attitudes to received authority the demands of allegiance in the face of opposition identifying who belonged and who did not all demanded attention These essays explore those divergent voices and the no less diverse and lively debates they have inspired in recent scholarship Controlling Contested Places Christine Shepardson,2019-05-14 From constructing new buildings to describing rival controlled areas as morally and physically dangerous leaders in late antiquity fundamentally shaped their physical environment and thus the events that unfolded within it Controlling Contested Places maps the city of Antioch

Antakya Turkey through the topographically sensitive vocabulary of cultural geography demonstrating the critical role played by physical and rhetorical spatial contests during the tumultuous fourth century Paying close attention to the manipulation of physical places Christine Shepardson exposes some of the powerful forces that structured the development of religious orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the late Roman Empire Theological claims and political support were not the only significant factors in determining which Christian communities gained authority around the Empire Rather Antioch's urban and rural places far from being an inert backdrop against which events transpired were ever shifting sites of and tools for the negotiation of power authority and religious identity This book traces the ways in which leaders like John Chrysostom Theodoret and Libanius encouraged their audiences to modify their daily behaviors and transform their interpretation of the world and landscape around them Shepardson argues that examples from Antioch were echoed around the Mediterranean world and similar types of physical and rhetorical manipulations continue to shape the politics of identity and perceptions of religious orthodoxy to this day

Spaces in Late Antiquity Juliette Day, Raimo Hakola, Maijastina Kahlos, Ulla Tervahauta, 2016-05-26 Places and spaces are key factors in how individuals and groups construct their identities Identity theories have emphasised that the construction of an identity does not follow abstract and universal processes but is also deeply rooted in specific historical cultural social and material environments The essays in this volume explore how various groups in Late Antiquity rooted their identity in special places that were imbued with meanings derived from history and tradition In Part I essays explore the tension between the Classical heritage in public especially urban spaces in the form of ancient artwork and civic celebrations and the Church's appropriation of that space through doctrinal disputes and rival public performances Parts II and III investigate how particular locations expressed and formed the theological and social identities of Christian and Jewish groups by bringing together fresh insights from the archaeological and textual evidence Together the essays here demonstrate how the use and interpretation of shared spaces contributed to the self identity of specific groups in Late Antiquity and in so doing issued challenges and caused conflict with other social and religious groups

Strumenti innovativi di marketing per i musei Roberta Garibaldi, 2013-03-19 T00:00:00+01:00 1294 12 Queer Readings of the Centurion at Capernaum Christopher B. Zeichmann, 2022-10-28 The first ever monograph on the history of queer biblical interpretation of a controversial biblical passage Since the 1950s homoerotic readings of the pericope in which Jesus heals a Roman centurion's slave have been built upon three of the account's features the specific Greek word pais which can refer to youth slave or the junior partner in a sexual relationship between two men Luke's characterization of the young man as dear entimos to the centurion and commonplace homoeroticism in the Roman army Rather than affirming or denying the historical reality of a sexual relationship between the centurion and the young man Christopher B Zeichmann instead traces the shifting patterns of queer readings of the text and the influences of the sexual political and theological discourses of late twentieth and early twenty first century Europe the United States and Australia Readers will see how distinct political contexts have led interpreters to find very different meanings about the sexual subtexts of this story Dura bellezza Marco Delogu, 2004 Venice and the Radical Reformation Riccarda Suitner, 2023-12-04 The Republic of Venice was the only Catholic territory in which an Anabaptist community formed in the 16th century The history of Venetian Anabaptism hitherto little known in Reformation Studies is the focus of this book Using a large quantity of archival material and rare printed sources Riccarda Suitner reconstructs the lives of the Republic's Anabaptists and the inquisitorial repression they suffered and analyses the doctrinal specificities of the Radical Reformation in this area This story represents a fundamental stage in the relations between German central European and Italian culture in the early modern period Events in Venice are presented within a broader comparative framework paying particular attention to the German states Switzerland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth Transylvania Moravia Tyrol and the Kingdom of Naples It will emerge that its Venetian history cannot be ignored if we are to gain a true understanding of the European Reformation Understanding Texts in Early Judaism József Zsengellér, 2022-03-07 This volume remembers G za Xeravits a well known scholar of deuterocanonical and Qumran literature The volume is divided into four sections according to his scholarly work and interest Contributions in the first part deal with Old Testament and related issues Thomas Hiecke Stefan Beyerle and Matthew Goff The second section is about the Dead Sea Scrolls John J Collins John Kampen Peter Porzig Eibert Tigchelaar Bal zs Tam si and R ka Eszt ri The largest part is the forth on deuterocanonica Beate Ego Lucas Brum Teixeira Fancis Macatangay Tobias Nicklas Maria Brutti Caldusch Benages Nuria Pancratius Beentjes Benjamin Wright Otto Mulder Angelo Passaro Friedrich Reiterer Severino Bussino Jeremy Corley and JiSeong Kwong The third section deals with cognate literature J zsef Zsengell r and Karin Sch pflin The last section about the Ancient Synagogue has the paper of Anders Kloostergaard Petersen Some hot topics are discussed for example the Two spirits in Qumran the categorization of the Dead Sea Scrolls the authorship and anthropology of Ben Sira and the angelology of Vitae Prophetarum Reading Dionysus Courtney J.P. Friesen, 2015-07-17 Courtney J P Friesen explores shifting boundaries of ancient religions by way of the reception of a popular tragedy Euripides Bacchae As a play staging political crises provoked by the arrival of the foreign god Dionysus and his ecstatic cult audiences and readers found resonances with their own cultural moments This dramatic deity became emblematic of exuberant and liberating spirituality and at the same time a symbol of imperial conquest Thus readings of the Bacchae frequently foreground conflicts between religious autonomy and political authority and between ethnic diversity and social cohesion This cross disciplinary study traces appropriations and evocations of this drama ranging from the fifth century BCE through Byzantium not only among pagans but also Jews and Christians Writers variously articulated their religious visions over against Dionysus often while paradoxically adopting the god's language and symbols Consequently imitation and emulation are at times indistinguishable from polemics and subversion
