Save Anything is a volume of the best of Jim's nonfiction articles published but never collected in one place until now. Though those many boxes were overflowing with papers in the end it's not really a matter of quantity. These pieces reveal some of the breadth and depth of Jim's endless interest in the world and the people in it. One of the great pleasures in writing nonfiction is the writer's feeling of exploration of learning about things he doesn't know of finding out by reading and observing and asking questions and then writing it down. That's what you'll find here. This collection gathers Salter's thoughts on writing and profiles of important writers observations of the changing American military life evocations of Aspen winters musings on mountain climbing and skiing and tales of travels to Europe that first appeared in The New Yorker Esquire People Condé Nast Traveler the Aspen Times among other publications
