All The Colours Of The Town:

All the Colours of the Town Liam McIlvanney, 2011-03-17 When Glasgow journalist Gerry Conway receives a phone call promising unsavoury information about Scottish Justice Minister Peter Lyons his instinct is that this apparent scoop won't warrant space in The Tribune But as Conway's curiosity grows and his leads proliferate his investigation takes him from Scotland to Belfast Shocked by the sectarian violence of the past and by the prejudice and hatred he encounters even now Conway soon grows obsessed with the story of Lyons and all he represents And as he digs deeper he comes to understand that there is indeed a story to be uncovered and that there are people who will go to great lengths to ensure that it remains hidden Compelling vividly written and shocking ALL THE COLOURS OF THE TOWN is not only the story of an individual and his community it is also a complex and thrilling inquiry into loyalty betrayal and duty The Complete Works John

Bunyan, 1877 All About South Africa Rob Marsh, 2013-07-22 All About South Africa is a comprehensive reference book for all South African children with enquiring minds and a lively interest in the world around them Packed with colourful photographs and illustrations the simple and thematically presented text is both easy to read and to understand This fascinating introduction to our country looks at life in southern Africa long long ago and explores the culture of our land and the people who helped shape our unique South African community It provides an intriguing insight into the ever changing world of science and technology and our sometimes puzzling economy This valuable reference work also introduces young readers to our equally important natural heritage the coasts mountains and climate of the land and the country's rich variety of wildlife Now in its 7th print edition and fully updated this well researched and visually stimulating volume offers all this information and much much more Complemented by lists of recommended places to see All About South Africa is an essential addition to the bookshelf of every South African child Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude, John Tulloch, 1873 Contains the first printing of Sartor resartus as well as other works by Thomas Carlyle
