began with travel during human civilisations when humans began to live in an organised society. In modern and post modern times tourism has evolved manifold and its demand has also increased. Travel and tourism promote happiness for various reasons from leisure and pleasure to psychological and physical well being and benefits. Considering the growth and development of travel and tourism the need for professionals to cater to the needs of this dynamic industry was felt. Tourism professionals require an in depth knowledge gained through multi disciplinary approaches such as history geography culture anthropology psychology and tourism business and thus the need for competency based vocational education was realised. In this regard CBSE introduced travel and tourism courses as part of the tourism and hospitality stream. Each chapter has been divided into the following parts: a Introduction It introduces you to the chapter's topic and learning objectives b Relevant Knowledge This part of the unit provides you with relevant information on the topics covered. The knowledge developed through this part will enable the students to perform certain activities listed at the end of each topic c Assignment The various questions included in this part of the chapter will help the students to check their understanding of the topics learnt. Sincere attempts have been made to keep the language of the book simple. The concepts have also been explained through pictorial illustrations wherever necessary. This will allow the students to have a swift reading of the book making the content of the book easy to understand. We also hope that this book will boost the students' morale and enormously benefit the teachers. Constructive suggestions for the improvement of the book are most welcome. The authors would be glad to read the feedback and implement it in upcoming books.

Mobilities, Tourism and Travel Behavior Leszek Butowski, 2018-01-17. The notion of mobilities when looked at from a practical point of view turns out to cover different kinds of human activity. It is not surprising then that when approached from an academic perspective it reveals enormous potential for interdisciplinary research which has proven extremely attractive to many scholars from different continents, disciplines and schools of academic inquiry. The scholars in this volume focus on the specific aspects of mobilities namely tourism and travel behavior but approach them from a plethora of positions Such a myriad of perspectives is bound to be challenging in methodological terms but it seems there is a growing agreement as to the worthiness of this interdisciplinary research By means of combining various approaches researchers obtain access to a fascinating and increasingly ubiquitous phenomenon of contemporary human mobility Proceedings of Sixth International Conference on Soft Computing for Problem Solving Kusum Deep,Jagdish Chand Bansal,Kedar Nath Das,Arvind Kumar Lal,Harish Garg,Atulya K.
