Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy. Additional crossword, word search, comprehension quiz, and answer key are also included.

About the Novel: A classic story of a family of twelve children and their adventures while growing up together. Frank and Lillian Gilbreth were renowned efficiency experts who often practiced their many different theories and experiments on their large family. Written with wit and humor, the book documents a multitude of humorous and touching vignettes, some hilarious and others nostalgic and heartwarming. Family adventures include the family car, a vintage Pierce Arrow, which is used by the parents for Sunday drives and causes the children no end of embarrassment. As well as a trip out west to visit Mother's straight-laced family. It is a story in which most families will readily identify and keep the reader turning the pages to the very end.

About the Novel: The Pigman is a story about two teens who befriend an elderly man and learn a valuable lesson about trust and repercussions. Lorraine and John don't have many friends. Their home life isn't ideal, so they spend a lot of time hanging out at the local cemetery. One day while playing a phone call game, the pair plays a prank on Angelo Pignati. The prank doesn't go as planned as Mr. Pignati is very lonely and trusting. This leads to an unlikely friendship between the three individuals. At first, Lorraine and John keep up the ruse as they enjoy having a place other than the cemetery to escape to. They enjoy the free items that Mr. Pignati showers on them. Nicknaming him the Pigman for his odd and overwhelming collection of pigs, Lorraine and John begin to truly like the man. One poor decision after another leads to tragedy that ultimately forces Lorraine and John to learn about themselves and how their actions have consequences.
