Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning Mapotse, Tomé Awshar, Tetteh, Emmanuel N. A., Matsekoleng, Tsebo Kgoto, 2025-05-29 After centuries of colonialism and imperialism many indigenous knowledge systems have been purposefully disregarded and forgotten to the point that the vast majority of the public but specifically researchers are completely unaware of their existence By utilizing these systems in conjunction with action learning and action research it can be possible to garner perspective and influence from all types of people regardless of their social or economic standing in working towards an inclusive and prosperous global society Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning encourages researchers the world over to apply Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS using Action Research and or Action Learning AR AL approaches in their fields of specialization The AR AL framework approaches and methodologies cut across almost all field of studies Covering topics such as action research and learning coloniality and professional development this book is an excellent resource for researchers

academicians educators pre service teachers sociologists and more Early Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Marianne Nikolov, Stela Letica Krevelj, 2024-10-15 Over the past six decades the field of teaching modern foreign languages to young learners has come a long way from the early surmises about the advantages of a young start to today's widespread integration of foreign languages into curricula in public and private schools The chapters in this book bring together internationally renowned researchers who have been vocal in establishing early language teaching and learning as an independent area of research and novice voices who represent a new generation of devoted researchers to present a state of the art volume on the topic The authors address key questions about young learner second foreign language L2 FL development methodological issues when conducting research with young learners L2 FL teaching pedagogy language education policy technology enhanced learning and assessment Together the chapters capture the reality of early FL development in the context of a globalized world and will be of great interest to researchers and postgraduate students of SLA and Applied Linguistics specifically in the field of early language development and teaching languages to young learners

Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina, 2025-03-28 Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions However research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation As a result further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods Covering topics such as cultural identity African research methodology and Indigenous media this book is an excellent resource for teachers
