What is the basic difference in orientation between financial and management accounting?

Management accounting is concerned with providing information to managers for their use internally in the organisation. Financial accounting is concerned with providing information to stockholders, creditors, and others outside of the organisation.

What are the three major activities of a manager?

Essentially, the manager carries out three major activities in an organisation: planning, directing and motivating, and controlling. All three activities involve decision making.

Describe the four steps in the planning and control cycle.

The Planning and Control Cycle involves the following steps: formulating plans, implementing plans, measuring performance, and evaluating differences between planned and actual performance.

Why do companies prepare budgets?

Problems & Solutions in Advanced Accountancy Volume I, 6th Edition Maheshwari S.N. & Maheshwari S.K., 2009-11-01
Any book on solved problems would be welcome by the students as they dread the unsolved problems the most. Problems and solutions in advanced accountancy Vol I and II is the result of realization of the same fact. However, this book will serve its purpose the best if before referring to it the students have attempted to solve the questions on their own. The book has been designed specially to serve as a complementary set to the textbook advanced accountancy Vol I and II authored by the same team as Dr S N Maheshwari and Dr S K Maheshwari. It contains detailed solutions to all the practical problems given at the end of each chapter in advanced accountancy as also solutions to the problems set at the recent university and professional examinations. A special feature of the book is that the problems have been properly graded. Management Accounting, 6e Will Seal, Carsten Rohde, Ray Garrison, Eric Noreen, 2018-10-30
Management Accounting 6e Don R. Hansen, Maryanne M. Mowen, 2003
