

College in Massachusetts, USA, for her Master's degree. Atwood had already begun to publish poetry by the time she went to the United States on a Woodrow Wilson scholarship. Since completing her Masters, she has been a full-time professional writer. In 2019, her husband, the novelist Graham Greene, passed away from dementia. Atwood has one daughter and lives in Toronto. She is a vice-president of the global literary organization, PEN International.

Poem Text

Atwood, Margaret. "Backdrop Addresses Cowboy." 1974. Poetry Foundation.

Summary

The poem imagines a cowboy entering the frame of a painting, a stage or a movie screen. The backdrop against which the cowboy is depicted is the speaker or the poem. Describing the cowboy as "starspangled" (line 1) or festooned with stars, the backdrop addresses the cowboy as "you" (line 7). "Starspangled" (line 1) could also refer to "The Starspangled Banner," the National Anthem of the United States. According to the backdrop, the cowboy walks with a swagger out of the American West, a "porcelain" (line 4) perfect smile on his face. The west is supposed to be grand but is "alarmingly silly" (lines 2-3) or ridiculous. The cowboy drags a cactus made out of paper mache behind him on a string. The cactus moves smoothly, as if sitting in a office chair or a wheeled cart. According to the backdrop, the swaggering cowboy is "innocent as a bathroom full of bullets" (line 7-8) or innocent as an object.

Despite his innocence, the cowboy is sure of his sense of righteousness, which is reflected in his eyes. "Starspangled" are eager to shoot guns at enemies and fill the streets with the corpses of the villains. As the cowboy moves ahead, he finds newer and endless targets to shoot. Left behind him is a trail of wreckage: empty and broken beer bottles and the skulls of birds.

The backdrop now depicts a shootout between the cowboy and some villains, as if in a Hollywood movie. When the shootout begins, the backdrop admits that it should be watching the cowboy passively and admiringly, from behind a cliff or a movie simulation of a storefront. But, the backdrop confesses, it is somewhere else.
