Singer, 2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge motivation tools and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks.

Differentiation in Practice: A Resource Guide for Differentiating Curriculum, Grades 9-12 Carol Ann Tomlinson, Cindy A. Strickland, 2005-08-15 Join Carol Ann Tomlinson and Cindy A. Strickland in the continuing exploration of how real teachers incorporate differentiation principles and strategies throughout an entire instructional unit. Focusing on the high school grades but applicable at all levels, Differentiation in Practice: Grades 9-12 will teach anyone interested in designing and implementing differentiated curriculum how to do so or how to do so more effectively. Inside you'll find annotated lesson plans for differentiated units in English, mathematics, history, science, art, and world languages. Samples of differentiated product assignments, learning contracts, rubrics, and homework handouts. An overview of the non-negotiables in differentiated classrooms and guidelines for using the book as a learning tool. An extended glossary and recommended readings for further exploration of key ideas and strategies. Each unit highlights underlying standards, delineates learning goals, and takes you step by step through the instructional process. Unit developers provide running commentary on their use of flexible grouping and pacing, tiered assignments and assessments, and numerous other strategies. The models and insight presented will inform your own differentiation efforts and help you meet the challenge of mixed-ability classrooms with academically responsive curriculum appropriate for all learners.

The NeighborHOOD Individual Protective Guide Kevin Andre White, 2007-11-09 This great book comes at a time when society is most vulnerable when decent policemen hired to protect society are too few and some paid protectors have become participants in criminal activities themselves. Our personal safety is paramount. No longer can we walk the streets in peace, expecting the same behavior in return. The average person must be aware of how prevalent crime is in society today. Therefore, this book will provide in checklist form actions citizens can take to protect themselves. To be direct, failure to take appropriate protective actions may lead to YOU or someone you love becoming the next victim citizens hear about on the six o'clock news or view some years later at a Holocaust museum.
